

THOSE FLAGS TO ADORN THE DANCE

The Students Will Not Have to Settle with the City.

A GRAND HOTEL AT THE ISLAND.

The Yellow Work That Was Done in St. Andrew's Market Building—Will It All Be Torn Down Again?

There were present at yesterday's meeting of the Property Committee Ald. Moore...

Your petitioners intend to form a company with a view to erecting a large summer hotel on the island...

To that end your petitioners have secured the lease of the site of the hotel from the city...

A sub-committee composed of Ald. Moore, Carleton and the City Commissioner will report at a later meeting.

Archibald Mackenzie defended the work on the new St. Andrew's Market buildings...

From his report, and he evidently had made it as mild as possible, the committee of aldermen...

was not of plumb, the western arch had sagged and there were other grounds...

City Commissioner Covertworth was instructed to remove that what was affected...

It is the duty of the city to see that the Island Park, forthwith, and also to stop...
