contrary to an injunction restraining the sale thereof.

The application to continue the injunction in Carroll v. Provincial Natural Gas Company, restraining the company from sinking a gas well on property claimed by the plaintiff, was argued before Chief Justice Gait and judgment reserved.

A motion in the action of Adams & Sons against Summerville & Co. of London, Ont., for an injunction to restrain the defendants from manufacturing alleged tutti frutti gum cone up before Mr. Justice Meredith, but was enlarged for two weeks.

Before Mr. Justice Ferguson at the Chancery Sittings the action by the executors of the late Abraham Suider of Markham against Andrew Pickering, to recover the amount of a mortgage and interest thereon, in all $4625, was tried. The defendant claims that the $2500, the amount of the mortgage, was never paid to him and that the mortgage, was never paid to him and that the mortgage, was never paid to him and that the mortgage, was never paid to him and that the mortgage was disa mortgage and interest thereof, in that the west true. The defendant claims that the $2500, the amount of the mortgage, was never paid to him and that the mortgage was discharged. Judgment was reserved.

Mr. Justice Meredith refused to continue the injunction obtained by the city of Kingston against A. Rousseau and J. R. Wison, waterworks contractors, restraining them from proceeding with the laying of a conduit pipe for the city. The motion to continue the injunction was enlarged before the trial judge to be there disposed of.

The Attorney-General of Ontario, upon the relation of Andrew S. Russell, has issued a writ of summons against the Vaughan Road Co., in which he asks for an injunction to restrain the company from collecting tolls till the roads have been inspected and pronounced in proper condition by the County engineer.

Ouebec Fire Assurance Co.

We have pleasure in referring our readers to the advertisement in to-day's issue of the Quebec Fire Assurance Company. As the coldest Canadian fire insurance company it is gratifying to find that notwithstanding the severe losses sustained in past years, and the increasing competition of larger organizations, the Quebec not only yearly increases its premium revenue, but also while paying its loses with promptitude, earns for its stockholders half-yearly dividends of 5 per cent. Quebec Fire Assurance Company. As the Founded in 1818 in what might be called the Waterloo days," something of the British steadfastness and pluck of those ever memorable and stirring times, must have inspired the management of the young company. If so, evidently that inspiration has been inherited and still survives, has influenced and still influences successive and present managements, as the history of the Quebec for the past 73 years clearly shows. A few items culled from the records of the company will, we think, support our statements.

The original paid-up capital was $325,000, from which losses have been paid of over $3,400,000; or, say the paid-up capital has been paid out over ten times in losses, with a further sum of $700,000 to stockholders in dividends and bonuses. further sum of $700,000 to stockholders in dividends and bonuses.

Conflagration years occasionally come in the history of all fire insurance companies. Notable years of such special disasters in the Quebec's history are as follows: 1834 $82,000, 1837 $131,000, 1845 $250,000, 1866 $242,000, 1870 $152,000, 1881 $392,000.

In June, 1881, the last and largest fire in the city of Quebec occurred, giving a sort of Waterloo trial to the company, from which they secured a Waterloo triumph for the board of directors of that year paid all claims within 60 days, with a kind discrimination in favor of sufferers who had lost all but their insurance money, for these were paid in ten days. In consequence, at the home office in Quebec the company, where it is best known, is in high favor and enjoys an honorable-record and reputation second to

Its policies are accepted for reinsurance by the largest Britisn offices, thus showing the reliance placed in it by people more intimately acquainted with insurance than the ordinary insurer.

The report of the superintendent of insurance for the Dominion of Canada for 1890 gives results of this company's business for Excuse the grammar; it's the truth I'm after, wheth gramatically or ungramatically told. The truth is that catarrh can be cured. The proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offer $500 for an incurable case of Catarrh in the Head.

THE SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Headache, obstruction of nose, discharges failing into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, purrel and offensive; eyes weak, ringing in the ears, deatness; offensive breath, smell and taste impaired, and general debility. Only a few of these symptoms likely to be present at once, Dr. Sage's Remedy cures the worst cases. Only 50 cents.

Canadians Be True. Canadians be true to the land of your birth, A land that is fair as the fairest on earth; Where none need complain who are willing to And gather the fruits of our pure virgin soil!

Chorus. - This motto for you, Canadians be true!

There's plenty of work for each brother to do;

Be loyal and trave
Your country to save.
To God, home and freedom, Canadians be true:

Canadians be true? for your fathers before Had wrongs to redress in the battles of yore! Tis history repeated like wave upon wave-Our heroes to-day are the sons of the brave! This motto for you, etc.

Canadians be true! there are men in our land Who trample on freedom and right underhand; They are rebels who try to plunder and plot, And cowards who fly when the fighting is hot!

This motto for you, etc. Oh! Canadians be true! God fights with the right Our land may be new, but our future is bright; Contented with peace, yet ready for strife, Our homes we'll defend if it costs us our life!

This motto for you, etc. Canadians be kind to the strangers who come To settle and build for themselves here a home, Their children will yet be as loyal and true To the land of their birth as now we find you!

This motto for you, etc.

The Owen Electric Belt Company:

DEAR STRS.—I think it but right to report how your Electric Belt helped me. I was confined to my bed most of last winter and spring with rheumatism, and was so bad that I often felt as though death would be a relief. One day in June last I was able to take a short drive with a friend, when we met your agent here, Mr. T. E. F-nby, whom I have known for years, but he hardly recognized me, I had failed so much. He told me what-your Belt had done for him and advised me to get one, which I did, and in a very few days began to get well. After ten days' use I was able to return to work again and am now almost as well as ever I was, and only regret I had not got a Belt last fall, for I would have been saved a lot of pain and money too. Am thankful to you for your Belt, and Mr. Fenby for recommending it. Yours truly.
