HARNESS THIEVES. Many Farmers' Barns in the Vicinity of Flynntown Plundered. The strange circumstances of the wholesale robbery Thursday night of four single sets of harness on adjoinfarms occurred at Flynntown in ing farms occurred at Flynntown in the third concession of East York. Mr. John Flynn, finding that his single set, which he had just bought for $30, was missing from his stable, went over to his neighbor's to borrow his, and finding that gone went to the next place with the same result. Finally John Flynn, John Gilray, William Johnston and Henry Johnston discovered that they were all in the same plight and looked up Chief Constable Lawrence. The case is in the hands of Chief Constable Sheppard.

EAST TORONTO NOTES.

"Shameful" and "scandalous" are the phrases to be heard at the Woodbine corcerning the action of the Toronto Street Railway Company in stopping the six-minute King-street cars at that point, and allowing the remainder of the line (Kew Beach, Balmy Beach and Balsam-avenue) to be served by a single "stub" car, leaving the Woodbine but five times in the hour. The arrangement is an exceedingly awakward one for business men and visitors to the Fair, and the single stub car is besides crewded to discomfort. People wonder why the company cannot put another short distance car on the line during the coming week.

Mr. W. J. H. Carnahan is at Niagara-on-the-Lake, taking part in the concert given there by the Toronto College of Music.

Owing to the late opening of the school term "Children's Day" was not generally observed at East Toronto.

The Triumph of the People
Every one had, in the last resort, to bow down to the people. The people rule. The people depose or exalt their rulers. It is the people who make the prices in commerce, and not this or that monopoly. For all feel that they must conform to the wishes of the people. It was the people the Bordeaux Claret Co., studied when it introduced its now famous cheap French wines. The French people drink wine like water and are a sober people. Why should Canadians not have good, wholesome wines upon their tables, at low prices? This was the question. The direct importation of large quantities from the vineyards was the answer. Clarets, Burgundies and Sauternes for $3.50 and $4.50 per dozen quarts, delivered to any part in Ontario. Address—Bordeaux Claret Co., 30 Hospital-street, Montreal.

Not the Embezzler Wanted.

Zurich, Sept. 6.—The police of this city have informed the federal authorities that their search for William R. were very large, 1097 cars, against 463 last year. The total of wheat and flour clearances from all ports was only 105,000 bush. Opening cables showed some steadiness, but Liverpool and the continental markets closed weak. There was no cash demand, not even enough interest in wheat on the part of exporters to make bids. There was some inclination to cover shorts early, there being enough of that sort of buying at one time to get prices back almost to Thursday's close. There was no new outside buying. The short interest reduced the price acted weaker than ever. Flour stocks in principal cities of the United States, 756,000 bis., showed a reduction from Aug. 1 of 115,000 bbis, and a reduction from the same time last year of 110,000 bbis. M inneapolis reported cash wheat there 'as going at the decreased price. That was at about the time there was as show of steadiness here. Primary receipts to-day were within 100,000 bush of last year, 864,000 bush, against 992,000 bush. No one will have any buying courage until there appears a cash demand.

Corn—Frost prediction for lowa, Nebraska, Minneapolis and the Dakotas started some good-sized corn shorts to covering, and railied prices temporarily 1-2 to 7-8 cent. The close, however, showed the strength all gone. Receipts were 455 cars; the estimate for Saturday, 390. There was not much of a cash demand, the spot premium here being barely half a cent. New York was 4 cents over Sept. Cables wer weak. The temperatures in the extreme Northwest were low to-day, but the frost predicted for to-morrow is for only light touches.
