The Ringston penitentiary now boasts of a population of 492, the largest since 1839, when 629 names were on the roll call. Of these 60 are life prisoners, also a record number. Despite these figures there has been a slight decrease in number of convictions, especially those of a serious nature. Of the 492 souls, only 11 are women.

Sara Bernhardt, the divine Sara, declares that she would starve to death the militant suffragettes. But she wants a vote. She said to the reporters: "I have nine menservants. I am superior in every immaginable way, and yet they have a share in the government of France, while I am a cipher. But we will see. In ten years, I tell you, there will be a different story." To be sure there will.

In the supplementary estimate there appears no provision for a mon ument to Tecumseh although $7,500 has been granted towards a Champlain monument at Orillia, and grants made to several other projects of like character. This will be a keen disappointment to the Thamesville Tecumseh Memorial Association, as a goodly sum has been subscribed locally and it was confidently expected that government assistance would be given.

The New York Herald warns those who contemplate going to the country for the holidays to be careful to select a healthful neighborhood. Every fall, it says, after the return from vacations, there is a large crop of typhoid fever cases, due to unfortunate sanitary conditions in the country. It is extremely important, then, that in planning a vacation the first inquiries should be made not as to the convenience or the comfort or even the character of the board provided, but as to the healthfulness of the loca-

The convention also provided that the marriage banns must be published at least three days before the wedding. The determination to demand clean health of all persons wishing to marry was the most important business transacted by the convention. It marks the determination of Episcopalians to back up the campaign for cleaner moral and hygienic conditions with something more tangible than ser-

He has unsatisfied judgments out against him. There are those who are watching him. hoping to discover where he keeps his pile, so he keeps the location of the pile a secret. He has no employment, he must be classed as a vagrant, having no visible means of support. Yet he looks very comfortable. He wearers good clothes, and dines on succulent steaks. He and his wife take extravagant vacations, and go to the best shows. But
