Come to Bridgetown

Tuesday's Yarmouth Herald says:—Mr. Alex. Co's corn mills, Water Street, arrived from St. John last evening and is spending to-day in town. Owing to the great development of this concern's business through the Annapolis Valley the managers have decided to open a second mill in Nova Scotia and they will probably locate at Wolfville. Mr. Steen expects to leave to-morrow or Thursday to look over the possibilities of that town as a centre of manufacture and its transportation facilities.

FIRST TO AID—LAST TO APPEAL

The Salvation Army was the first of the strictly social organizations to follow the British Army to Belgium. On the 18th of August, 1914, its Officers and Soldiers appeared at Brussels ready to help the boys.

We all know how the Army has kept up with the fighting boys. Right to the front line with the coffee and sandwiches, and farther back huts for recreation and social purposes were established. They have 197 huts. Over 300,000 soldiers daily have received comfort and help and guidance from the lasses and the matrons who fight under the Blood-and-Fire Banner.

Till now the Salvation Army has not asked for money, except in small contributions on the street corners. Other agencies have appealed for help to carry on their good work with the soldiers. The Salvation Army is now asking for a million dollars to continue the good work which was begun on the battlefields. The request is reasonable. But it should not be left for a few to subscribe. This is a chance for everybody. Will you help?
