WEST PARADISE

Mrs. D. H. Sarfield is visiting friends and relatives at Harmony, Kings County.

While jumping from a moving train, little Miss Phyllis Hirtle had the misfortune to fall and skin her face very badly.

The Crokinole Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Saunders Tuesday evening, November 24th. A very enjoyable evening was spent in the usual way. Mrs. Gordon Hirtle and Mr. Harding Morse were the winners for the evening. After the games refreshments were served by the hostess.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish through the Monitor, to thank the people of West Dalhousie, who were so kind to my mother and made her last summer and autumn so earth so happy. Especially do I wish to thank Mrs. Samuel Hannam for the tender care she gave her. And Mr.
Freeman Shipp and Mr. Lawrence Durling who carried her on a mattress in a car to her home in Lawrencetown. Carried her so carefully that she did not feel the jolts over the rough parts of the road. Also, I wish to thank the friends in Lawrencetown for their kind help and sympathy to me; and the W. M. S. of the United Church for the beautiful flowers they sent.

ABANDONS CAREER TO MANAGE HERD

Follows in Father's Footsteps, Miss Frances Corning Carries off Trophies at Toronto Winter Fair.

(Toronto Globe.)

To end, by chance, a vacation as a stock breeder has been the experience of Miss Frances Corning of Yarmouth, N. S., who with just pride is exhibiting a herd of Guernsey cattle at the Toronto Winter Fair. A more slip of a girl in her early twenties, Miss Corning, who in 1923 graduated from Annapolis Academy, Wolfville, and who specialized in studying the art of expression, had planned a very different career. A year ago the daughter of her father, Howard Corning, a P. R., who had been recognized throughout Canada as a leading stock breeder, being a challenge across the path of Miss Corning.

Not only has Miss Corning managed to keep up the Guernsey breed, but at the request of the Canadian Guernsey Breeder's Association, she assumes the duties of Secretary of that body which her father had held.

Miss Corning admitted to The Globe that managing a herd of purebred Guernseys was indeed a task, and that her responsibility involved much study. "Dad and I were pals, and of course, he was always talking stock records," she said, explaining the fact that she was familiar with cattle since childhood. "Daddy would have been proud of the Guernsey exhibit at the Royal today," she said.
"It was always his dream to see a large exhibition of Guernseys at the Fair."

Is Real Expert.
With the familiarity many a girl displays with her pet Pomeranian, Miss Corning strolled among her herd at the Royal, declaring they were all great pets. A 5-year-old Guernsey, Miss Corning claimed, "was the best cow in all the world." Slipping into the stall of the senior herd, she clumped off the Royal Fair in 1922, the C. N. E. in 1923, and the Royal again in 1925. Miss Corning saves the stock sides of the bull a friendly pat. When The Globe asked whether the young exhibitor felt any fear of the animal, she laughed, and replied: "I am not the least afraid of the herd sire, but I'll admit I'm more afraid of a mouse."

MOIST ROSE

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marshall have returned to their home here after being away during the summer months. Their daughter, Mrs. Win-Norse of Granville, is spending a few weeks with them.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. R.
S. Young of Worcester, Mass., on the arrival of a son, Robbie George.

Mrs. Melissa Hall, of U. S. A., and Mrs. J. D. Brinton, of Port Lorne, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hines.

Sorry to report Mr. Alfred Marshall on the sick list. Dr. Crowe, of Bridgetown, in attendance. We wish for a speedy recovery.

Mr. Fred Charlton, our mail driver is also on the sick list at time of writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Sanford, of Wolville, Mrs. Cora Sanford and family of Clarence, Mr. and Mrs.
Joseph Marshall and two sons of Hampton, and Rev. and Mrs. Asaph Whitman and family of Port Lorne, have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Asaph Whitman recently visited at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Daniels, of Lawrencetown, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lantz, of Bridgetown.

Mrs. Hattie Sanford is stopping for an indefinite time with Mr. and Mrs.
Alfred Marshall.

Inspector M. C. Foster of Bridgetown made an official visit to the school here, on Thursday.

The item which appeared in last week's news should have read as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Asaph Whitman went to Port George on Sunday, to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Ruth Elliot, in stead of Mrs. Naomi Gates, as stated. The mistake was unintentional.

GREAT PREACHERS:

The Bishop of Durham in a recent speech expresses the fact that there are no longer any great preachers, that there are today none in the direct line of the Puritans and the Vaughns. But he is by no means the first to make that discovery. I have heard many people make the same statement and I don't think there are many who would dare to name one who is known today as Spurgeon was known a century ago. Bishop Henson feels that the reason for this lies in the fact that the church is no longer speaking as it did a few years ago, with a single voice. That is certainly true. The discoveries of science have in the last fifty years made inroads into the old creeds and traditions upon which the church had stood so firmly for many centuries. Astronomy, geology, biology brought to light facts and theories which were, to say the least, highly disturbing to intelligent young men who had embarked on the ministry of God. On the reception of these facts and theories the church became divided. On the one hand there was and is the great body who refused to believe the findings of science, and on the other there was the smaller body who attempted to reconcile them with their religious beliefs. What was the result? The preacher who refused to credit the findings of science discovered that his church was slowly emptying of those who did believe in the findings of science. The preacher who tried to reconcile science with his religion no longer spoke with the old clear voice, and the doubts which which he was, being constantly tormented with the conviction from his conscience. But this was not all.
Church organization altered. In his old days when very little parish work had to be done the preacher had leisure to study and prepare his sermons. Today, what with the call of the parish, what with society upon society requiring his time, he is physically impossible for any but the most energetic to find leisure to properly prepare a sermon, much less give attention to study. But that is not all. In the last fifty years the intellectual standard required of a minister has gone up.
In the old days he and the doctor and perhaps the lawyer were the only ones in the congregation who had had a college education. Books and magazines and reviews and newspapers were not so widely read. But to day everybody can get a college education—either by going to a college or by reading what comes in the mail. The consequence is that a preacher to be outstanding must be a constant student—which as I pointed out above, he is unable to be because of the many parochial calls on his time. We can't expect our ministers to spend their weekdays in slavery to church organizations and preach two outstanding sermons every Sunday.—P. D. L. in Halifax Chronicle.

RESOLUTION EXPRESSING SATIS- FACTION AT APPOINTMENT

OF REV. W. S. LORING AS G. W. P. OF SOONS OF TEMPERANCE IN
N. S.

Belleisle—At a recent meeting of Belleisle Division, it was moved by Deputy H. G. Parker, that the following resolution be forwarded to Bro.
W. S. Loring. Also that it be placed on the records of the Division.

"That whereas the Grand Division of Nova Scotia at the recent annual session held in the city of Halifax, elected and installed as Grand Worthy Patron of the Jurisdiction of Nova Scotia, Rev. W. S. Loring, and whereas Bro. Loring as well as his good wife first became identified with the work of the order as members of Belleisle Division. Therefore resolved that we place on record the pride we feel in having one of our former members exalted as the head of the order in this Province and further resolved that we heartily congratulate our good brother on the attainment to this high distinction and at the same time assure him of our loyalty and support in whatever measures he may undertake for the good of the cause during his term of office, as well as to congratulate Grand Division in what we believe to be wisdom in making the selection it has for 1925-26.

Mrs. Loring was formerly Miss Carrie Dodge.—(Ed. Monitor.)

GRANVILLE CENTRE

Mr. E. S. Palmer has returned to the United States.

Mrs. Taylor, of St. John, recently visited her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Gerner. Miss Hennessey, of Fairville, N. B., was also a guest at the same time.

Sorry to report Mr. A. E. McCormick on the sick list, suffering from the effects of a fall, which occurred a few weeks ago in his barn.

Mrs. Myra Bufford of Marblehead, Mass., spent a few days here last week. On her return she was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Emma Wade, and aunt, Miss Myra Long, who will spend the winter with her.

The death occurred on November 15th, at her home here, after a lingering illness, of Mrs. Caroline McCall.
Mrs. McCall, who has resided here for fifteen years, was a native of Bermuda, and did not get accustomed to our northern climate, consequently she never left her home, but those who visited her found her a cultured lady, interesting and interested, in all that was for the uplift of humanity. She is survived by one son, who resided with her, and who has the sympathy of all. Rev. R. A. Neish conducted the funeral services and burial took place in Wadeville cemetery.

The Ladies of All Saints' Anglican Church held a chicken supper in the Hall, November 10th and realized the sum of $53.00.

The members of United Baptist Church, heard with much regret the resignation of their pastor, Rev. A.
Gibson, to take effect December 31st.
During his nearly six years pastorate he has endeared himself to his people and all feel deeply the separation.
He has been appointed to a larger work, and after a three months course in Boston University, will enter upon his new duties as Field Secretary for the Baptist denomination in the Maritime Provinces.

The Ladies of the Baptist Church held their annual "chicken" supper in the Hall, November 26th, together with a fancy sale, also candy and pantry sale, and realized the handsome sum of $102.07.
