

Hunter Rose & Co.'s Publications.

THE CREATION OF MANITOBA: A History of the Red River Troubles.
By ALEX. BEGG. Crown 8vo., 414 pp. Frontispiece. Cloth, neat, $1.50.

"The author of this volume is necessarily well informed, and gives a clear narrative of the growth of the rebellion, the crimes committed by the insurgents, and its collapse upon the appearance of the military * * * Mr. Begg's history will be accepted as reliable, and it is, besides, written in an easy, clear style, worthy of commendation."—The Express (Toronto.)

DOT IT DOWN: A story of Life in the North-West. By ALEX. BEGG.
Crown 8vo., 380 pp. Cloth embossed, $1.50

"This volume contains a large amount of useful information, concerning a country in which we are deeply interested."—Graph Mercury.

"It abounds with useful information, contains several anecdotes and adventures in the country pleasingly told. And while affording pleasant reading for all classes about our newly acquired territory, given by an eye witness, it becomes specially interesting to all those intending to emigrate to Manitoba."—Toronto Telegraph.

"This book, in a light and easy style, gives a great deal of information about the North-West Territory, and is suited alike to the taste of the mere novel reader, and to that of a person in quest of sound information regarding that important country. It is full of pleasant and amusing incidents, and the information to be obtained from it will amply repay perusal. The typography is excellent, the paper is first-class, and the binding would do credit to any English or American house."—Ottawa Free Press.

THE CHILDREN OF MRS. DOMINION, How they Quarrelled, and what came of it. Crown 8vo., 24 pp. Illustrated cover, 10c. Sent post paid, on receipt or price.

"It is cleverly written, and endeavours to show the state of feeling of each Province, on the question of Confederation, previous to the consummation of the Union, and how they subsequently accepted the situation, and settled down."—Balfour Abolitionist.

"This is a venture in the style of the Quarrel in Dame Europa's School, intended to teach the lesson of unity to the Children of Mrs. Dominion."—Ingersoll News.

LIFE OF THE DUKE OF KENT: embracing his correspondence with the De Salaberry Family. By Dr. J. ANDERSON, Quebec. Demy 8vo., 242 pp. Cloth embossed, $1.00.

SKETCHES OF CELEBRATED CANADIANS, and Persons connected with Canada, from the earliest period in the history of the Country down to 1862. By HENRY J. MORGAN. Demy 8vo., 794 pp. Library style, $2.00. A few copies of this rare book on hand.