

CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
An Answer to a Sarcastic Satire	74
The Devil's Poet Laureate	75
To a Young Lady on her departure from English River	77
A Hymn of Nature	78
New Year Reflections and Forest Glimpses	81
Verses on the Dreadful Disaster which occurred on the Great Western Railway, March 12, 1857	91
My Forest Home	101
Breathe again	102
The Invitation	103
How Blest was I	104
The Moonlight Night for me	105
Song	107
My Auld Duddie Claes	108
I Love thee, yes, and I'll Love thee	109
My Auld Fire Side	110
Song to Cyllindia	111
On the Departure of the British Troops for the Russian War	112
Auld Lang Syne	113
Battle of Alma	114
On the Banks of the Sweet English River	117
The Auld Wife's Tea	118
To the 39th Regiment on their arrival in Montreal	119
To a Young Coquette, who wish'd to know if she was Beautiful	121
A Fragment	"
A Simile	"
Verses	122
Stanza	"
Written in an Album	123
" " "	"
" " "	"
A Valentine	124
Verses to a Vain Coquette	"
Of an Old Cobbler	125
On an Innkeeper	"
Stanza	126
The Printer's Parody	"
"The Shannon Side"	127
Verses Written on the Burning of the Steamer Montreal	129