TO CORRESPONDENTS.

The hints of ERASMUS and many other friends, will be taken into consideration.

We thank N. T. for his information.

G. S.—t's communication, will be inserted.

“Observations on the evident Partiality of allowing a provision for the settlement of Scotch Emigrants, and denying it to the Irish and English,” though sufficiently spirited and pointed, had better be enquired into more particularly before we can determine upon its admission.

ESSAYS, moral, literary, or humorous, if good will be received with pleasure.
