Letter For Tidings.

Dear Friends:—

How do you do this morning? If you are as cold as I am, you would not go to the fire, though the mercury stands at 65° in the house. This cold snap came on three days ago, and is the only real cool weather we have had thus far this season. A few days ago we almost wanted the punkah. About a month ago, a shock of earthquake awakened us in the middle of the night, with its awesome thunder. I know of no noise to which it can be compared, but it strikes terror. And what will it be when He comes to shake mightily the earth? The shock was slight, but there is scarcely time to think.

We are fairly well here, though I have been having an unusually bad time with my head lately. The worst for a year, and I would be happy not to have another for another year. Mr. Gullison is having a long pull with fever which we all regret; but are thankful it is no worse. Mr. Hardie went to Bobbili some time ago, to assist in the care of him. It looks as if some of them would not get to Conference, which begins next week at Vizianagram.

From a secular point of view, we have had a good school year. Only two of the pupils failed to pass the examinations and that was because of irregular attendance. Ethel's work with the small children received large praise, and there is no doubt her adaptability for this department. I have taught daily Bible lessons, and we are much interested in the teacher as we hope the Lord will convert him.
