CIRCULAR.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS, MILLERS, MANUFACTURERS OF NET AND PEARL ASHES, PACKERS OF BUTTER, &c.

255, ST. PAUL STREET, Montreal, June, 1858.

PERMIT me as a Commission Merchant of long standing in this city, to tender my services for the sale of produce.

I give special attention to Ashes, Flour, Pork, Butter, and other Provisions, for the disposal of which to advantage I have the best facilities.

Unless otherwise directed, I sell on arrival at the highest price of the market, to obtain which no pains are spared, and remit the proceeds, by mail immediately, at the risk of the Consignor, or pay over the amount in any way he may direct. Consignments should be distinctly marked with owners initials and addressed, "JOHN DOUGALL" in full in Bill of Lading or Forwarder's receipt, as also in letter of advice.

Insurances will only be effected when ordered

I should have much pleasure in taking charge of any Consignments you or your friends may wish to send to this market, and you may rely on my best exertions for your interest, and that all charges will be kept as low as possible. The Commission on Ashes is 1 1/2 per cent, including brokerage; on Flour and Wheat 1 1/2 per cent, exclusive of brokerage; on Pork and Butter 2 1/2 per cent, including brokerage. When specialy agreed on, advances may be made by short acceptances against Bills of Lading, for a small additional Commission.

Debentures or other Securities will be bought or sold for 1 per cent, including brokerage.

Referring you to my Prices Current which appears twice a-week in the Montreal Witness, published at $3 per annum in advance, for full information concerning this market,

I have the honor to be,

Your most obedient servant, JOHN DOUGALL,
