BIBLE CONQUESTS IN MANY LANDS.—Striking experiences of distributors and pioneers.

Summary of contents: The Bible—Its power, or results from reading the Bible and Romanism. Bible distributors, incidents and adventures. Concerning Bible Scarcity. Those who think much of the Bible and its influence should by all means get and read this book. Price, $1.25.

PECULIARITIES OF THE DISCIPLES.—A series of five sermons by B. B. Tyler. Paper cover, 25c., post paid.

I have just read "Peculiarities of the Disciples," a series of five sermons by B. B. Tyler. I am much pleased with these sermons, and believe their wide circulation will do good. Bro. Tyler understands the gospel of Christ, and loves to present it to his fellow-men in its New Testament setting. These discourses very clearly and correctly set forth the teaching of those who are pleading for primitive Christianity. Bro. Tyler has been misjudged. Many brethren have thought him over-liberal. His five sermons prove him true to the peculiar and distinctive positions of our rapidly growing brotherhood. Let the little book be read by many. We have confidence in it. FRANK TALMAGE. Pittsburg, Pa., June 24, 1890.

"A Vision of the Ages"; or, Lectures on the Apocalypse. A complete view of the book of Revelation. By B. W. Johnson. This work has been received with great favor as the best exposition of this wonderful prophetic book. Three editions have been called for within about a year of its appearance. 12mo, cloth. $1.25.
