THE SUN FOR 1880.

The Sun will deal with the events of the year 880 in its own fashion, now pretty well understood by everybody. From January i to December 3r it will be conducted as a newspaper, written in the English language and printed for the people.
As a newspaper, the SUN believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape-the shape that will enable its most inteligible shape-the shape that will enable its readers to kcep well abreast of the age with the leas readeroductive expenditure of time. The greatest interest to the greatest number-that is the law control ling its daily make-up. It now has a circulation very much larger than that of any ot her American news paper, and enjoys an income which it is at all times prepared to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life and all ways of thinking buy and read the Sun ; and they all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns, for they keep on buying and reading it.
In its comments on men and a In its comments on men and affairs. the Sun believes that the only guide of policy should be common sense by honesty of purpose. For this reason it is, and will continue to be, absolutely independent of party, class, clique, organization, or interest. It is for all, but of clique, organization, or interest. It is for all, but of none. It will continue to praise what is good and re norobate what is evil, taking care that its language is to the point and plain, beyond the possibility of being misunderstood. It is uninfluenced by motives that do not appear on the surface ; it has no opinions to sell, not appear on the surface ; it has no opinions to sell, save those which may be had by any purchaser for two cents. It hates injustice and rascality even more than it hates unnecessary words. It abhors frauds. pitie fools. and deplores nincompoops of every species. It will continue throughcut the year 1880 to chastise the first class, instruct the sectend, and discountenance the third. All honest men, with honest convictions. whether sound or mistaken, are its friends. And the SuN makes no bones of telling the truth to its friends and about its friends whenever occasion arises for plain speaking.
These are the principles upon which the SUN will conducted during the ycar to come. The year 1880 will be one in which no patriotic

BRIGS & SONS, Hamilt

It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the polical events which it has in store, or the necessity of resolute vigilance on the part of every citizen who desires to preserve the Government that the founders gave us. The debates and acts of Congress, the utterances of the press, the exciting contestsof the Rep ances of the press, the exciting contests of the Repub strength throughout the country, the varying drift of public sentiment, will all bear directly and effectively upon the twenty fourth Presidental election, to be held in November. Four years ago next Nove held in November. Four years ago next November the will of the nation, as expressed at the polls, was thwarted by an abominable conspiracy, the poomoters and beneficiaries of which still hold the offices they stole. Will the crime of 1876 be repeated in 188 ? stole. Will the crime of 1876 be repeated in 1888 ? The past decade of years opened with a corrupt, extrava pant and insolent Administration intrenched at Washington. The Sun did something toward dislodging the gang and breaking its power. The same men are now intriguing to restore their leader and themselves to places from which they were driven by the indigna tion of the people. Will they succeed? The coming year will bring the answers to these momentous questions. The Sus will be on hand to chronicle the facts as they are developed, and to exhibit them clearly and as chey are developed, and to exhibit them clearly and fearlessly in their relations to expediency and right. Thus, with a habit of philosophical good humour in looking at the minor affairs of iffe, and in great things a steadfast purpose to maintain the rights of the peo ple and the principles of the Constitution against all ple and the principles of the Constitution against all aggressors, the SUN is prepared to write a truthful, instructive, and at the same time entertaining history of 1880 .
