BY JOHN INRIE, TORONTO, CANADA. Nor my will, but Thine, O Lord ! Trusting to Thy promis'd Word; Keep me over near to Thee, All through life my Guardian be, Teach me all I ought to know, Guide me where I ought to go, Be my Comforter and Friend, Till I reach my journey's end ! Let my heart its fulness tell, Gratitude my bosom swell; Patient, humble, mild, and meek, Let my lips Thy praises speak. Darkness Thou has turn'd to day. Swept my guilty fears away ; Thou art all in all to me,— I am naught compar'd to Thee! When at last life's battle o'er,-Landed safe on Canaan's ahore, I shall see Thy blessed face Lighten up that glorious place, Prostrate at Thy feet I'll fall, There Thy wondrous love recall,

Love so boundless, deep, and free, That it compass'd—"EVEN ME!" John Ixan's Pohms, containing about 400 pages, nestly bound in cloth and gold, will be sent, post free, on receipt of one Golder. Innin, Gantan & Co., 31 Church St., Toronto, Canada. Only a few copies loft.

Mr. McQuarrie reported that he had arranged with Mr. Robertson, of Port Dover, to declare the charge of Port Elgin vacant in accordance with appointment of Presbytery at its last meeting, which had been done. Leave was granted to Mr. McQuarrie, as moderate or Port Elgin session, to moderate in a call to a minister when the congregation see fit. Mr. Thomas Miller appeared before Presbytery and asked to be certified to the Senate of Knox College as a student entering the University of Toronto, having the ministry in view. On motion of Mr. Guthrie, duly seconded, the application was granted. The Heme Mission Report from Mr. Tolmie was read by the clerk in which it was intimated that it had been proposed to reduce the grant to North Brant from Augmentation Fund from $100 to $50, and that to Kinloss, &c., from $150 to $100. The Presbytery in view of the fact that the tendency of these congregations is to become smaller rather than larger owing to remorals agreed to sak for congregations is to become smaller rather than congregations is to occome smaller rather than larger owing to removals, agreed to ask for the renewal of the former grants, it being wiser to conserve the funds of the church by refusing to assume additional responsibilities rather than sacrifice the interests of congregations already on the fund. The clerk read a report on Statistics showing that in almost all departments of church work there had been some advance during the year. Report was also read from the Presbyterial society of the Women's Foreign Missionary organization showing the total sum raised during the past year to be $609.46; that clothing valued at Northwest, and that the number of suxiliaries within the bounds of the Presbytery is ten,
