

Rev. Father Henning C.S.S.R., who has just been transferred from St. Patrick's church, to Annapolis, Md. for which place he departed on Tuesday morning last, was one of the foremost pulpit orators in this province. His departure is keenly felt by his late parishioners, more especially so, as from the shortness of notice given, they could not present to him a suitable testimonial of their esteem. The St. Alphonsus Young Men's Association, of which he was president and founder, at a special meeting on Sunday last, presented him with an address and a purse of $50. Father Henning suitably replied, telling them of the good societies such as theirs were doing, and said that in his successor, the young men and parishioners generally would find a kind patron and friend.

Men and Things.

Mr. Parnell during the discussion on the Land Purchase Bill in the House of Common said :
 " I should gladly welcome any honest intention on the part of the government to solve this land question. It is of great importance for us to get it out of the way before the time arrives for the larger settlement of Home Rule. Difficulties about land, if they should arise upon Mr. Gladstone's return to office, will materially hamper him and increase the arduous character of his task. Difficulties between landlord and tenant if they should arise, will be most embarrassing for the Irish Parliament, and the future executive depending upon that Parliament. By all means settle it now. But this pretended land purchase bill is no solution. It seizes upon all our available resources, and hypothecates them without our consent. It jobs away the limited number of millions available, which, if husbanded and carefully directed, as I have shown, would go far—very far—toward removing all pressure and difficulty in the future. It selects the large and absentee owners for favored treatment, while it compels the tenant to buy his holding at an inflated price, with a load of arrears around his neck and the pistol of coercion at his head. We cannot be any party to a measure so brought forward and constituted. We shall resist it clause by clause in committee ; we shall, if possible, amend it ; and we believe that, as the progress of events had justified every vote that we have ever given in the House of Commons on the land question, and every step that we have ever taken to organize the Irish people against oppression, so our action against this most dishonest bill of a dishonest party and government will benefit Ireland and secure the verdict of history."

To the Editor CATHOLIC WEEKLY REVIEW.

" The CATHOLIC WEEKLY REVIEW of Toronto, which derives all its knowledge of true faith from some doubtful and condemned proposition of Brownson's Review, has been attacking Mr. Tardival in language most unguarded, calling him an obscurantist, and declaring him to be a worse enemy of Catholicity than the Toronto Mail or the Montreal Witness."

Mr. Editor. — The above extract is from the Catholic Record of London, Ont., of June 7th. The learned editor of the Catholic Record would oblige if he would point out the " propositions," if any, written or spoken by Dr. Brownson since 1844 that were " condemned " by the Holy See or were disproved by the head of the Catholic Church.
