"Give my love to the artist workmen of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their professoin worthy of admination for beauty, as it has always been for assfulness." - Henry Ward Brecher.

HANDSOMERT PAPER IN THE WORLD.

THT ALDINF, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or lincely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature and a collection of pictures, the rargest specimens, of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely, without competition or in price or character. The possessor of the volume just completed cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engraving in any other shape or number of volumes for ion times its cost.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the press is so great that reprinting is out of the question. With the exception of sanad number specially reserved for binding, the edition of 1871 is already exhausted and it is now a scarce as well as valuable book.

New Features for 1872.—Art Department.

The enthusiastic support so readily accorded to their enterprise, wherever it has been introduced has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of the soundness of their theory that the American public would recognize and heartily support any slacere effort to clevate the tone and standing of illustrated puplications. That so many weekly wicked shocts exist and thrive is no evidence that there is no market for anything botter—indeed the success of THE ALDINE from the start is direct proof of the contrary. With a population so vast, and of such varied teate, a publisher can choose his patrons, and his paper is rather indicative of his cown than of the taste of the country. As a guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publishers would beg to announce during the coming year, specimens from the following eminent American Artists.

W. T. RICHAIDS,

GRANY, PERKINS.

W. T. RICHARDS, WM. HART, WM. HART, GEORGE SMILEY, AUG. WILL, JAMES SMILEY, FRANK BEARD, J. HOWS.

GRANV. PERKINS, F. O. C. DARLEY, VICTOR NEHLIG, WM. H. WILCON, JAMES H. BEARD, R. E. PIGURT, PAUL DIXON,

The pictures are being reproduced without regard to expense by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the very severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determentation of the publishers that THE ALDINE shall be a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT. Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get up of the work, to much dependence on appearances may very naturally be feared. To antend to such misgiving, is only necessary to state that the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been intrusted to Mr. Richard Henry Stoddart, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.

THE VOLUME FOR 1872, will contain nearly 300 pager, and about 220, fine engravings. Commencing with the number for January, every third number will contain a beautifully third picture on plate paper, inserted as a frontispiece.

The Christmas number for 1872, will be a splendid volume in itself, containing fitty engravings, four in tint, and, although retailed at 31 will be sent without extra charge to all yearly subscribers A Chromo to every Subscriber was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publishers have purchased and reproduced, at great exposes, the beautiful of painting by Sols, entitled "Dame Nature's School." The chrone is 11 x 13 inches, and is an exact facesimile, m. s. 2s and appearance, of the original picture. No American obrone, which will at all compare with it, has yet been of fered at rotal for less thauthe price asked for THE ALDINE and it together. It will be delivered free, with the Jauany number, to every subscriber who pays for one year in advance.
