

please; I tell you I shan't strike back again; fighting is a poor way to settle difficulties. I'm thinking, when you are Charles Everett, I'll talk with you.

Hand me some water, Buddy, won't you? In a minute, Bettie.

And Bettie's favored cheek was pressed again to the pillow; and little Harry's hands went on as busily as ever with the trap he was making, and at length he entirely forgot the request.

Please get it now, Buddy, he at last heard, and scattering knives, triggers, and strings in his haste, he was soon holding a cup to her crimson lips.

Not this, please, but some fresh and cold from the well, she said.

Oh, don't be so particular, Bettie; this is fresh; and I'm so busy I can't go now; won't this do?

The no longer refused, but quickly took the cup which was offered; and it was the last time she ever called upon her brother for an act of kindness; ere another day had passed she stood beside the river of life, and drank its cool waters never to thirst again.

Little children, are you kind to one another, or are you cross, selfish, and fretful? Remember, then, the time will come when they are beyond your reach; and then, O how gladly would you give all you possess to have them back again!

Think of this when you are tempted to quarrel, to be selfish or unkind; for did you know if one of you should die, the rest would remember every act of unkindness, every bitter word which had fallen from their lips.

Learning is not offensive in a woman, if she only preserves a gentle and thoroughly feminine disposition. Some one has very significantly said that it does not matter how blue the stockings are, if only the petticoat is long enough to cover them.

The Author of 'Sweet Home'—It is said that the author of 'Sweet Home,' J. Howard Payne, whose song has been sung all over the world, was himself a wanderer in life, and never had a home.

How often, said he once, have I been in the heart of Paris, Berlin, and London, or some other city, and heard persons singing, or hand-organs playing 'Sweet Home,' without having a shilling to buy myself the next meal or a place to lay my head.

Thus he wished to die in a foreign land, to be buried by strangers, and sleep in obscurity. His wish was realized. He died at Tunis.

The Progress of a Luxury.—For thirty years fashionable world has been perfumed with MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER, and its fame has been spreading as time flows.

They are put up in glass vials, and will keep in any climate. In all cases arising from, or aggravated by impure blood, BRISTOL'S SASSAPARILLA should be used in connection with the Pills.

LYRA CATHOLICA: A COLLECTION OF MASSES, HYMNS, MOTETS, For the Offertory, Benediction, Elevation, and the Principal Festivals of the CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Together with Responses Complete, from Authentic Sources, including Correct Gregorian Music for Vespers. The whole selected and arranged large or small Choirs, by J. H. WILCOX, Mus. Doc. Organist of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, and L. H. SOUTHWARD, Formerly Organist of the Church of Sts. Peter and Paul.

In the present work, the Editors have endeavored to furnish a large number of pieces, attractive from their intrinsic beauty, free from all secular or other objectionable associations, and sufficiently easy to be within the grasp of the larger part of Parish choirs; music neither heavy and unmeaning, nor vulgar and common-place, nor, worse than either, light and trivial, entirely unsuited for the sacred offices of the church.

In 1 Vol. large quarto, bound in cloth. Price $2.50 on receipt of which copies will be mailed, post-paid OLIVER DITSON & CO., Publishers, 277 Washington Street, Boston.

One of the miseries of human life is going to dine with your friend upon the strength of a general invitation, and finding, by the countenance of his wife, that you had much better have waited for a particular one.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY. The following is an extract from a letter written by the Rev. C. Z. Weizer, to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburg, Penn.:

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our 'Susy' to say, 'A Blessing on Mrs. Winslow for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and toothing sieges. We confirm every word set forth in the Prospectus. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less.

'Away with your 'Cordial,' 'Paregoric,' 'Drops,' 'Laudanum,' and every other 'Narcotic,' by which the babe is drugged into stupidity, and rendered dull and idiotic for life.

We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her 'Soothing Syrup for Children Teething.' If we had the power, we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant Race. 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Be sure and call for

"MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP." All others are base and dangerous imitations. February, 1867.

Between Health and the Grays there is but a thin partition, and all who value life are willing, it is presumed, to do their best to prevent disease from breaking it down. Who so mad as to await the final attack, when the first onset can be repelled with BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS, a preparation so genial and balsamic, so searching, yet so invigorating, that while it fights down the complaint, and expels its cause, it also builds up the strength and braces the constitution of the patient.

Composed of antibilious and cathartic vegetable ingredients, at once safe and searching, it is the only cure for disorders of the stomach, liver, and the bowels, which can be relied upon under all circumstances, and in all climates. The idea of pain is justly associated with ordinary purgatives; but BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS do not create even an uneasy sensation, either in the stomach or the alimentary passages. Need it be said that they are the best household cathartic and alterative at present known?

Purchasers are requested to see that the words "Florida Water, Murray & Lanman, No. 69 Water Street, New York," are stamped in the glass on each bottle. Without this none is genuine.

A Household Word to Millions.—Throughout two-thirds of the civilized world, BRISTOL'S SASSAPARILLA may be called the synonym for invigoration. Its tonic properties are proverbial in every South American country; in Mexico, Cuba, Central America, Brazil, and all the British Colonies from the Canadas to the Australian antipodes, the evidence is alike in its favor.

S. T.—1860.—X.—The amount of Plantation Bitters sold in one year is something startling.—They would fill Broadway six feet high, from the Park to 4th street. Drake's manufactory is one of the institutions of New York. It is said that Drake painted all the roofs in the Eastern States with his cathartic "S. T.—1860.—X." and then got the old grumpy legislators to pass a law "preventing disfiguring the face of nature," which gives him a monopoly. We do not know how this is, but we do know the Plantation Bitters sell as no other article ever did. They are used by all classes of the community, and are death on Dyspepsia—certain. They are very invigorating when languid and weak, and a great appetizer.

SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

In lifting the kettle from the fire I scalded myself very severely—one hand almost to a crisp. The torture was unbearable. The Mexican Mustang Liniment relieved the pain almost immediately. It healed rapidly, and left very little scar. Chas. Foster, 420 Broad St., Philada.

WHAT DID I?—A young lady, returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in New York, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a rustic, flushed face, she had a soft, ruddy complexion, of almost marble smoothness; and instead of 22, she really appeared but 17. She told them plainly she used Hagan's Magnolia Balm, and would not be without it. Any lady can improve her personal appearance very much by using this article. It can be ordered of any Druggist for only 50 cents. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

Heimstreet's inimitable Hair Coloring has been steadily growing in favor for over twenty years. It acts upon the absorbents at the roots of the hair, and changes it to its original color by degrees. All instantaneous dyes deaden and injure the hair. Heimstreet's is not a dye, but is certain in its results, promotes its growth, and is a beautiful HAIR Dressing. Price 50 cents and $1. Sold by all dealers. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER cures Sudden Colds, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Affections, Toothache, Sick Headache, Frost Bites, Kidney Complaints, Old Sores, Throat Affections, Diphtheria, General Debility, Diarrhoea, Pain in Stomach, Cholera, Scalds and Burns, Sprains, Bruises.

This long tested and unrivalled Family Medicine has been favorably known for about thirty years, during which time we have received thousands of testimonials proving it to be an almost never failing remedy for the above named complaints. It has been tested in every variety of climate and in almost every known portion of the globe. The missionary, the sailor and the soldier find it an inestimable friend, and the millions of bottles sold yearly are its best and strongest recommendation.

The great reputation the Pain Killer has won for itself has induced others to imitate and counterfeit it to a great extent. We should caution all purchasers against these imitations either in name or style of putting up such as Pain Destroyers; Pain Relievers; Pain Kings; Pain Remedies, &c., &c. Country Merchants and Druggists purchase these worthless preparations for one half the price of the genuine Pain Killer, yet charge the public the same as for the genuine, hence their object in urging these worthless preparations on the public.

Send for a Pain Killer Almanac and Receipt Book for 1867 gotten up with the greatest care and contains, aside from numerous testimonials, &c., of the Pain Killer, a very valuable collection of Domestic Receipts.

The Pain Killer is sold everywhere by all Druggists and Country Store-keepers. PRICE, 15 cts., 25 cts. and 50 cts. per bottle. Orders should be addressed to PERRY DAVIS & SON, Manufacturers and Proprietors. MONTREAL, C. E.
