the higher prices obtained at Amsterdam auction sales. Opium is very dull and unsettled still. Otherwise prices steady to firm.

Dry Goods.—There has been a good movement in all lines of dry goods, though not of course to such an extent as was the case at the beginning of the month, with the Exhibition in full swing.
 Travellers report uniformly bright prospects.

Flour and Grain.—The usual attempts have been made to bull the wheat markets with reports of one-third of the crop damaged by frost, etc. But so far as we can learn the damage by frost has been but slight and of a purely local character hardly worth mentioning. There has been no change in grain prices since last issue, and trade is rather dull. Flour, too, is unchanged, the price quoted by local exporters for carload lots of 90 per cent. patents being about $2.65, it being largely held, however, at 2 to 3c. higher than that figure. Oatmeal and Millfeed are steady.
 Peas are somewhat scarce, a large portion of the crop being affected by the rot.

Fruit.—The trade has experienced another active week with large receipts being swallowed in a good demand.
 Peaches are fairly plentiful now, on one or two days indeed too much so, and
