HAVE JUST PUBLISHED

By Professor J. Clark Murray, LL.D., McGill College, Montreal,

Solomon Maimon: AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY.

Translated from the German with Additions and Notes. 12mo. $1.50.

From the English Press.

In an article extending to upwards of four columns, The Spectator says:—"It is certainly, as Dr. Clark Murray himself observes, a very strange thing that this fascinating piece of autobiography, which has been in existence something like ninety years, should never have been translated into English till now. . . . Dr. Clark Murray has had the rare good fortune of first presenting this singularly vivid book in an English translation as pure and lively as if it were an original, and an original by a classic English writer."

"A curious and rare work. . . . As a spiritual biography, an account of the development of a man's inner life, it is as curious a work as has been penned. . . . It may be recommended to the attention of students of philosophy and theology as one of the most interesting documents in the inner history of modern Judaism."—Scotsman.

"One of the most romantic stories ever written. The book, however, is much more than a biography, it possesses historical interest, opening up what, to British readers, must be unknown efforts of human thought and wanderings of the religious life. For the light it throws upon Judaism especially, both in its speculative and practical aspects, the work is probably unique."—Daily Mail.

A MANUAL OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY OF CANADA

From the earliest period to the year 1888; including the British North America Act, 1867; and a Digest of Judicial Decisions on Questions of Legislative Jurisdiction. By John George Bourinot, LL.D., F.R.S.C., Clerk of the House of Commons of Canada; and author of "Parliamentary Practice and Procedure in Canada," "Local Government in Canada," etc. 12mo, pp. 12-238. Price $1.25.

This is a work which has been long needed. It contains in handy form a logically arranged and clearly stated exposition of the present Constitution of Canada, introduced by chapters on all the previous Constitutions in historical order. The work is based on a portion of the author's large treatise on Parliamentary Practice and Procedure. This has been revised and brought down to date, and all the recent great Appeal cases which bear upon the interpretation of the Constitution are fully discussed. The author's larger work has been for some time in use as a Text Book in the University of Toronto, but there is much in it which is applicable only to the forms of Parliamentary Procedure. This Manual has been prepared primarily for use as a Text Book for University students in Constitutional Law, but it is adapted to assist all who take an interest in public matters; all who write in the press or speak on the platform; as well as those who study in quiet how to perform their duties as citizens of a free state. Especial interest will be felt in this Manual because of the manner in which the important test cases are treated. Such cases as Russell and the Queen, Hodge and the Queen, the Presbyterian Temporalities Case, the Controverted Electors Act, the Fishery License Case, the Canada Temperance Act, are analyzed, and the Constitutional principles defined and developed in their effects on Federal and Provincial Legislative powers. No such compact and careful treatise has yet appeared in Canada, and it supplies a widely-felt need.

To our Customers and others:—We have secured during the past winter a very large stock of exceptionally good ice, cut near the Island, under the direction of the Board of Health and personal supervision of the medical Health Officer, and pronounced to be of excellent quality, suitable for family, hotel and office use. We make a specialty of this class of trade, and say, without fear of contradiction, that there is no better ice put up in this city than what we have in store, no matter by what name it may be sold under. On May the 1st we commence our regular delivery to all parts of the city.

We here beg to thank our old customers for their kind patronage in the past, and again solicit a renewal of their orders for the coming season.
