WYCLIFFE COLLEGE

Division one, represented by Gillman and Lordly, won the second series of the Inter-Year Debate on Friday night, from Division Two. Divisions Four and One are now left for the finals. Extremes meet—sometimes!

Grey is not yet tired of talking of the pretty girls he met at McMaster last Friday. Watch where he sits at the Wycliffe v. McMaster Debate.

A matrimonial tangle was caused by Harford, Abbott and Petter on Tuesday at Greek Lecture. None of us know now whether we are married or not.

Wycliffe met Knox at Castle Corson on Monday, and sent the Scots home with a bee in their lugs, after a wee game o' Water Polo, to the tune of 15 goals to 5.

The atmosphere in Wycliffe is hot after the Oratory of last evening. There was a lot of hard talking against time—for a medal. Needless to say the winner won it.

The annual meeting of the Wycliffe College Mission Society was held on Friday last. Seven reports were given by the men of missions held during the past summer. There was a snap and vim in their short addresses which was most refreshing. An excellent address by Rev. W. J. Southam, B.D., was given at the close on "Christian Passion."

L. Dixon, B.A., gave an excellent address at Chapel on Tuesday, on his impressions of the Bellevue Conference.

42 Freshmen! So much green around our Halls that we cannot realize that it is winter time.

APPLIED SCIENCE

M. B. Heebner, '11 has been called home to Lee, Mass. to the funeral of his father who died at the end of last week. His class mates extend their sincerest sympathy.

J. Lanning, '11 has just returned from Newfoundland whither he had gone to attend the funeral of his father. Sincerest sympathy to him in his bereavement.

School men are reminded that the copy box has been put up in the Engineering building. Material for the Faculty page must be in by 4 o'clock on the second day before the issue.

Mr. G. H. Greer, of 2nd year is progressing very favourably at the Western Hospital. We soon hope to see George around again.

Negotiations for a rugby game between II and III years are about at a stand still. The sophs are holding out for one decisive game with the best of either 3rd or 4th year while third year cannot arrange a game with fourth.

VICTORIA COLLEGE

Captain McDowell of the Hockey team is, nightly, seeing visions of the Jennings cup.

This evening, Victoria plays a very strenuous game of water polo against School. Now, we have enough good stuff in Vic. to root just as hard as those Toike Oike men. Come on, fellows! Let us do it.

Hurrah! The Conversat is here. The "Bookies" have been busy and proms are nearly all taken. They say coiffure a la coronation will still be popular among the young ladies. Gentlemen are requested to bring their "Snap" cups along to assist in handling the refreshments.

ONLOOKER'S CORNER

ONLOOKER CRITICISED.

To the Editor of The Varsity:

Sir—What is the matter with the Onlooker? Notwithstanding his rather cynical attitude toward the "Blumenthal Boy" and the "Fusser," we fear that he is a gay young dog.

Where but in the pages of the thrilling and inexpensive novelette could he get such dramatic pictures of the terrible fate of the poor "Fusser?" And where, Oh Onlooker, where in the wide and weary world could you get such ideas of the real live Yale, or Harvard man, except, (we hesitate to say it in cold print) at our two leading houses of burlesque, where dainty damsels prance gracefully across the stage, costumed in neatly-fitting sweaters adorned with the colours of some University, and depict the ways of the naughty "College Boy!"

But in all seriousness, Onlooker, you have been looking at these Universities through jaundiced glasses. To be sure there is a certain element in the American Universities that may approach the time honoured "Rah Rah" element of refined burlesque. But in the two years I spent in one of the larger American Universities, while I saw several of the so-called "Student riots" and once or twice entirely uncalled for demonstrations, I noticed that the men never once voiced the name of their Alma Mater, when engaged in any thing but legitimate celebration of a victory.

Furthermore, Onlooker, speaking of your favorite mark, Yale, can you point to a University anywhere, whose students, or graduates have a greater spirit of brotherhood, or a greater loyalty and reverence for their Alma Mater than these same Sons of Eli.

EX-CORNELL '12.

[A Daniel come to judgement!
Oh excellent and kindly criticism! But I protest that I never saw 'dainty damsels...depict the ways of naughty college boys.'—THE ONLOOKER.]

Our Kitchen Is Your Kitchen

We offer you our sanitary sunlit kitchen in the cleanest, most hygienic food factory in the world, in which we bake every year, millions of crisp, golden brown Shredded Wheat Biscuits. Our kitchen is your kitchen when you eat the food that contains all the strengthening, body-building material in the whole wheat grain made digestible by steam cooking, shredding and baking. It is the one cereal food that has survived the ups and downs of public fancy—always clean, always pure, always the same price.

Always heat the biscuit in oven to restore its crispness; then pour hot milk over it, adding a little cream. Salt or sweeten to suit the taste. Being in Biscuit form it makes delicious and wholesome combinations with stewed prunes, apple sauce, sliced bananas, or other stewed or fresh fruits. Try it for breakfast for ten days and see how much better you feel. Your grocer sells it.

TRISCUIT is the Shredded Wheat Wafer—a crisp, tasty, nourishing whole wheat Toast, delicious for any meal with butter, cheese or marmalades. Always toast it in the oven before serving.
