

The visit of Mr. Jeremy Kinsman, Assistant Deputy Minister of Communication Canada, lead to promising contacts for direct cooperation between Canadian and German television producers.

Both sides recommend to their television institutions to increase the existing cooperation in the field of coproduction.