

ARTICLE 13

Loss or Disclosure

1. In case the classified military information provided by the originating Party is lost or disclosed while under the possession of the receiving Party, the latter Party shall immediately inform the former Party. The receiving Party shall immediately investigate the circumstances of such loss or disclosure and shall promptly inform the originating Party of the findings of the investigation and corrective action taken or to be taken.
2. The receiving Party shall investigate any violation of the security rules related to classified military information.
3. The investigating Party, if necessary, may request the other Party to send specialists on classified military information protection or request other assistance which the Party can provide in connection with specific investigations. Such requests shall be favorably considered.

ARTICLE 14

Costs

Each Party shall be responsible for meeting its own costs incurred in implementing this Agreement. However each Party will be free to consult the other Party regarding any respective share of costs when appropriate.

Settlement of Disputes

Disputes arising from the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement shall be settled amicably and expeditiously by mutual consultation or negotiation between the Parties and shall not be referred to any third party.
