I am pleased to inform you that the Government of the Republic of France is agreeable to the proposals contained in your letter. I also wish to confirm that your letter, the French and English texts of which are equally authentic, constitutes an agreement between our Governments.

However, while it was decided at the meeting of the Joint Cinematographic Commission of September 17 and 18, 1992, that the Agreement concerning Cinematographic Relations would be amended by adding an annex on financial co-production, I suggest that you add a provision to the effect that the application of annex B on financial co-production of film will be stayed until further notice.

Under these terms, the present Agreement will come into force on November 1, 1997.

Sincerely,

[signed]
Loïc Hennekinne
