

30th March 1936

Dear Harrington,

I am honoured by the suggestion made by the Graduating Students through their Convocation Committee that I should deliver the annual Baccalaureate Address on Sunday the 24th May in Moyse Hall. It will be a great pleasure for me to do this and I accept the suggestion very readily.

Yours sincerely,

Conrad Harrington, Esq.,
Chairman 1936 Convocation Committee.