

The registration is limited to fifty, there being students in attendance from almost every province. Graduates of this School are scattered throughout the country conducting and supervising activities in physical education, in order to promote and maintain the vigor of our Canadian manhood.