

liquor, in various parts of the country, thus entailing much suffering and trouble in many ways.

8. Your Committee recommend that a strong prohibition paragraph be inserted in the pastoral address to our societies, and that our ministers be advised to keep this subject of prohibition prominently before their congregations.

9. God is on our side; right shall triumph over selfishness and party interests; the great incubus of this ungodly traffic must be removed from the commerce of our nation, and thus the stream of social and national life be purified.

We pledge ourselves to this end, and must wage this great conflict until the monster vice of intemperance is consigned to eternal oblivion.

SUPERANNUATION FUND.

Annual Report of the Board for the Year ending July 31st, 1888.

I have pleasure in again presenting to the Board the Annual Exhibit of the state of the Fund.

Although the past year has been one of great stringency in money matters, the income of the Fund has been sufficient to meet the claims of the year, and to pay off the balance against the Fund, with which the year was commenced.

The amounts apportioned to the several Districts have been paid, with comparatively trifling exceptions, and the claimants have received their full allowances.
