

PUBLISHED MONTHLY.

THE FORTNIGHTLY REVIEW

EDITED BY

JOHN MORLEY.

CONTENTS OF THE JULY NUMBER.

I. The Defeat of the Liberal Party. By GOLDWIN SMITH.	1
II. British Interests in the Present Crisis. By EMILE DE LAVERGNE.	25
III. The Ethics of Religion. By PROFESSOR CLIFFORD F.R.S.	39
IV. The Duc de Broglie. By FRANK H. HILL.	53
V. At the Royal Academy. By H. H. SLATHAM.	69
VI. Virgil in English Hexameters. By G. OSBORNE MORGAN, Q.C., M.P.	85
VII. Evolution and Positivism (Conclusion). By J. H. BRIDGES.	89
VIII. The Indian Civil Service. By THE RIGHT HON. LYON PLAYFAIR, M.P.	115
IX. A New Political Organisation. By J. CHAMBERLAIN, M.P.	126
X. Home and Foreign Affairs.	135
XI. Books of the Month.	147

Price, 50 cents per Copy—$5.00 per Year.

The Canadian Edition is printed from duplicate set of plates forwarded every month from England, and is uniform in every respect with the English Edition, and at about half the price.

BELFORD BROTHERS

PUBLISHERS.

TORONTO.