

CONTENTS.

xiii

PAGE

PAGE

CHAPTER XI.

General view of his Missionary labours—State of travelling—Forests— Winter—Snow shoes—Dangers—Crossing streams and bays—Accommodation—Conversation—Preaching—Examinations—Visiting—Results 222

CHAPTER XII.

Settlement of Stewiacke—Visits thereto—Suffering from hunger—Umbrage at Elder—Communion—Answer to prayer—Elders at Upper Settlement—Visit to Amherst—Dissappointment as to MacBean and Cree—Arrival of Romanists—Converts among them—Visits to River John, Tatamagouche, and Wallace..... 245

CHAPTER XIII.

Social progress of Pictou—Statistics of congregation—Books imported—David Dale—Elder's offence—Visit to Noel, &c.—“Perils of waters”—Sickness—Visit to Prince Edward Island—Conversion and freedom of slave—Remarkable conversion—Winter of 1795..... 265

CHAPTER XIV.

Appointment of Messrs. Brown and Ross—Their arrival—Reception—Dispensation of the Supper—Formation of the Presbytery—Settlement of these brethren—Division of Pictou congregation—Doctor MacGregor's marriage..... 285

CHAPTER XV.

Supplying vacancies—Journey to Cape Breton—Visit to Miramichi—Applications to Scotland—Indications of degeneracy in Pictou—Election of 1799—His farming—Studies—Presents of books—Essay on Millennium—Death of his father—Letter to William Young—Arrival of Mr. Dick—His ordination..... 309

CHAPTER XVI.

Arrival of Doctor MacCulloch—His settlement at Pictou—Doctor MacGregor's visits to Prince Edward Island and Douglass—Remarkable conversion—Letters—Province of New Brunswick—Journey through it—Letter—Journey through Prince Edward Island..... 337

Ar-
to Seica-
... 89

ers is-
—
ny
... 110

... 139

s t
... 164

179

207