

V. Political effects of the Emigrations—The Highlands hitherto a nursery of Soldiers:—circumstances on which this depended; no longer exist—the loss of this national advantage does not arise from Emigration,	63
VI. The Emigrations of the Highlanders intimately connected with the progress of National prosperity—not detrimental to Manufactures, nor Agriculture,	79
VII. Means that have been proposed for preserving the population of the Highlands—improvement of waste lands—fisheries;—manufactures—cannot obviate the necessity of emigration, .	95
VIII. Emigration has no permanent effect on population—Legal restrictions useless and dangerous—discontents in the Highlands—emigration useful to the public peace,	114
IX. Prejudices of the Highland proprietors against Emigration—mistakes from which they arise, .	130
X. Conduct of the Highland Society—Emigrant Regulation Bill,	139