

original Rule—Proofs that the Rule to the Church at large—Other Objections—

Advice of Tobias, when he ended in the Society of

Mr. Goler makes the disposition to a statement of questions respecting the Vicar's Canon of a difference—The only writers of the Vicar concur in the character of Scripture from
of Hooker, also of Dr.
to the Vicar, also to the St.

Mr. Goler makes the
disposition to a
statement of questions respecting the Vicar's Canon of
a difference—The only
writers of the Vicar concur
in the character of Scripture from
of Hooker, also of Dr.
to the Vicar, also to the St.

Clear gives up the Insurgent writer—His equal —Dr. Bayn's comparative Thomas More's character gives vindication of the Martin and Ward—Proof James I concerning Comparison between the Luther in defence of his,

Fresh instances of
of a disingenuous propoof the Bible—Departure Vicar first defends the reasoning on both heads—cripts—The Vicar justifies resent writer—His forced Testament is later than , that Tradition is more to f the word of God—Inciples of the late Bishop

f New Cottage on Their —Proof that the Catholic characters or Marks of the church—This proved from others, page 122.

ments in general—This acing instances of it in the le diversity of belief with

Doctrine, in Liturgy, in ms of Catholics—Extract of N.—Bishop Watson's

LET. XXI.—Objections answered—Bishop Watson, by attempting to prove too much, proves nothing—Doctrine of the Holy Scriptures and Faiths on this head—Exclusive claim of the Catholic Church against of her truth, page 131.

LET. XXII.—Second Mark of the True Church, Sanctity—Sanctity of Doctrine wanting to the different Protestant Communions—In Luther's System—In Calvin's—so that of the Established Church—In those of Dissenters and Methodists—Doctrine of the Catholic Church—How page 139.

PRESBYTER—Variations and unpopularity of the Rev. John Wesley's doctrine, page 140.

LET. XXIII.—Means of Sanctity.—The Seven Sacraments—possessed by Catholics—Protestants possess none of them, except Baptism—The whole Liturgy of the Established Church has been taken from the Catholic Moral and Ritual—Sacrifice the most acceptable worship of God—
The most perfect Sacrifice offered in the Catholic Church—Protestants desist of Sacrifice—Other means of Sanctity in the Catholic communion, page 149.

LET. XXIV.—Fruits of Sanctity.—All the Saints were Catholics—Comparison of eminent Protestants with contemporary Catholics—Immunity caused by changing the ancient Religion, page 151.

LET. XXV.—Objections answered—False accounts of the Church before the Reformation, so called—Ditto of John Fox's Martyrs—The views of a few Popes on impeachment of the Church's Sanctity—Scriptural practices and exercises common among Catholics, but despised by Protestants, page 160.

LET. XXVI.—Divine attestation of Sanctity in the Catholic Church—Miracles the Criterion of Truth—Christ appeals to them, and promises continuation of them—The Holy Fathers and Church writers attest their continuation, and appeal to them in proof of the True Church—Evidence of the Truth of many Miracles—Religious scepticism—Dr.
Conyers Middleton—This undermines the Credit of the Gospel—Continuation of Miracles down to the present time—Living witnesses of it, page 163.

LET. XXVII.—Objections answered—False and unauthenticated Mirac-cles as disproof of true and authenticated ones—Strictness of the examination of reported Miracles at Rome—Not necessary to know God's design in working each miracle—Examination of the arguments of celebrated Protestants against Catholic Miracles—Objections of Gibbons and the late bishop of Salisbury (Dr. John Donghess) against Miracles refuted—Bishop Donghess's Conclusive Evidence from Acosta, against St. Xavie's Miracles, clearly refuted by the testimony of the said
St. Xavie's Miracles, clearly refuted by the testimony of the said Acosta—Testimony of Ribadeneira concerning St. Ignatius' Miracles truly stated—True Account of the Miracle of Saragossa—Impostures at the tomb of Abbe Paris—Refutation of the Rev. Peter Roberts' pan-theistic concerning the miraculous cure of Winfield White, 175.

LET. XXVIII.—The True Church Catholic.—Always Catholic in name, by the testimony of the Fathers—Still distinguished by that name in spite of all opposition, page 184.

LET. XXIX.—Qualities of Catholicity.—The Church Catholic as to its members—as to its extent—as to its duration—the original Church of this country, page 187.

LET. XXX.—Objections of the Rev. Joshua Clark answered.—Existence of an invisible Church disproved—Vain attempt to trace the existence of Protestantism through the discordant heresies of former ages—Valu-