

114. The requisite marks in Elementary Inorganic Chemistry necessary to record "Pass" for Physics, may be obtained either in the second or first class, and will be counted under the head of Chemistry in the Cadets general total; but they will not entitle him to any record of "Pass" in Chemistry unless he also obtains the qualifying minimum for the full course of Inorganic Chemistry.

115. In the 1st and 2nd Classes painting from copies will be combined for qualification with drawing from copies, object, or nature.

116. If a subject of obligatory instruction is completed in any class, then in order to qualify either for class promotion, or for any certificate of graduation, a Cadet must obtain not only the qualifying minimum of the subject in that class, but, should he have failed in it in any previous classes, then also in addition, sufficient marks to make up any deficiency in the qualifying minimum of the full course of the completed subject, incurred by failure in any former class or classes; i.e., he must qualify in each obligatory subject in the completing class as well as in the full course of the subject.

117. Marks above qualifying minimum which may be obtained for an obligatory subject in any one class will not count towards making up in any higher class any deficiency in the qualifying minimum of the same subject required for that higher class, but all marks obtained for an obligatory subject in any class will count towards making up the final total for the full course of that completed subject.

118. The qualifying minimum for class promotion of the full course of any completed subject is that which is specified for the same subject as being requisite for a second class certificate.

QUALIFICATION FOR PRIZES.

119. The conditions requisite to entitle to prizes are as follows:

(a.) A Cadet who fails to qualify in any obligatory subject at any Term or final examination cannot receive any prize either for class or any other subject at the examination in which he fails.

(b.) A Cadet, although he may be highest in a class or first in any subject of instruction, will not be eligible to receive any prize unless the Commandant reports that the work, etc., etc., of the Cadet is of sufficiently high quality to merit such recognition.

For Class Prize.

To count during any term the greatest number of marks in all theoretical subjects of Instruction, Obligatory and Voluntary in any class.

For Subject Prize.

To count at end of full term of service the greatest number of marks in any subject from date of joining to date of leaving Royal Military College.
