London, June 27.—Establishment of self-sovernment for Ireland within the British Empire is proposed in a manifesto issued today by the "frish Dominion League" and signed by Sir Horace Plunkett and other Irishmen.

The proposal, it is claimed, is a great advantage over any previous proposed resolution for the Irish question, except that the British cohaged the self-treat and the British cohaged the self-treat and the British cohaged the self-treat is maintained. The amount of hobe the self-treat is maintained. The mention is made to possible hostille seriff. and it is said that such a problem mention is made for Ireland her shared and people know what the seasoblased and people know what the manifesto to unite and let the British parliament and people know what the political status of Ireland would be a member of the league of nations and of the imperial conference council or parliament which may be established.

Ireland would have complete control of her internal government. The naval and military defence remain as and of the imperial conference council or parliament which may be established.

Ireland would have complete control of her internal government. The naval and military defence remain as at present, but no authority but the Irish parliament would have the power to make contributions to the naval, military and diplomatic services.

In referring to Usier the manifesto many ways. The Usserfices are asked to a many ways. The Usserfices are asked to a which the trial way and diplomatic services.

In referring to Usier the manifesto cading:

"But if "appeal meet with no response, the Irish pominion League will be proposed to show that the Urls, would be constitutionally recognition, and the same position of far asked to what safeguards they would be constitutionally r compliance with the order for extra cars. D. L. McCarthy, K.C., who appeared for the company, stated that the matter would probably be argued in November. "Who are the directors of the company now?" asked Mr. McCarthy. "The members of the railway board, under the railway board act," suggested the reporter.

"But they are not elected by the snareholders and are not responsible to them as required by the companies act," said Mr. McCarthy. "They are responsible to no one. They might wreck the road, and they are responsible to no one."

reporter.
"No, they assume merely the func-ze, west of Bromberg. Polish staff officers stationed in Paris characterize the Czenstochowa action as most critical, as the Germans are within 20 miles of the city at some points.

The decision of the council of four to permit the Polish army to establish order in Galicia west of Lemburg carried with it temporary recognition of the River Brucz as the eastern of the council has very full powers."

"No, they assume merely the functions of the directors of the company." The decision of the council by agreement by the board representing the company and the city, and it could afterwards be referred to the ratepayers if necessary, but the council has very full powers."
