As the last work in completing the ar-rangements for the game, A. C. Dunbar, vice-president of the governing body, has appointed Jack Hazlett, former captain of Queens, as referee, and Sinclair Mc-Bvenue, former captain of McGill, now resident in Toronto, as judge of play. The competing clubs failed to agree on officials for the game, Varsity declining to accept the men who officiated in the game at Toronto, and the appointment was made this afternoon. ship. By virtue of their victory at Toronto and the advantage of playing on their own gridiron, McGill will start favorites. McGill will be equally as strong on the line as in the game at Toronto, while the backfield will be strengthened by the services of Heney, who was given his first tryout in the game against Queens final clash in the Mulock Cup

Montreal Star: The grumble about failure to play off for the Dominion rug-by championship seems to be due more to the desire in some quarters to make a little easy money than the high and lofty sporting motives that are supposed to be the cause.

lofty sporting motives that are supplied to be the cause. Asked why the Montreal teams were not enthusiastic for a championship game in Torcnto, a correspondent wired: "There will be a McGill-M.A.A.A. city championship game, but no Dominion game, because the Ontario champions are looked upon with suspicion."

R.M.C. II. and O.A.C. of Guelph will play the intercollegiate junior final on Varsity campus this afternoon at 2.30.

Ridley College Old Boys' will play their annual football match against the Ridley team at St. Catharines on Saturday af-ternoon, Nov. 22.
