Mr. Rodger has had wide, varied and most successful experience in home mission work in the far west and north, where he has spent most of the last four or five years. The impressions he made in his recent supply of the pulpit fully warrant the choice of the congregation, and it is earnestly hoped that he may accept the call. The choice was made on the third ballot by a decided majority, and was at once made unanimous by open vote. The salary offered is $1800 with one month's holidays, but without a manse
