The work among the young people of the diocese was one of the subjects discussed at the meeting of the Synod of Huron last evening. In the report of the A. Y. P. A., the need of more work among the young people by means of church societies was impressed upon the synod. Societies for young people in each parish were advocated as a means of causing men to hold sacred many things which they did not, during their younger years. They were also advocated on account of the splendid success in the past Bishop Williams asserted that the movement was one of the most splendid
