OTTAWA, Aug. 7.—The following resolution dealing with the civil reestabilishment of discharged soldiers was carried with enthusiasm at today's session of the national Liberal convention:

1. Whereas it is considered that the guiding principle for a permanent settlement of the problem of civil re-estabilishment should be equitable treatment to soldiers in all avocations, having regard to the length and nature of service.

Resolved, that this convention declares that the adoption of a system of cash grants to the soldiers and dependents of those who have fallen is the most satisfactory and effective means of civil re-establishment—such grants to be in addition to the present gratuity and to any pension for disability resulting from service.

Competent Authorities.

Further resolved, that this convention further considers: 2. That the whole matter of the education of the returned soldier be placed in the hands of competent educational authorities to provide for the co-ordination, improvement and extension of a system of educational training, both vocational and separat vocational and general.

3. Insurance: That provision should be made whereby any increased cost of insurance in favor of the dependents of the soldier should be borne by the state where such increase arises from disability incurred during the war.

4. Pensions: (A) That such pensions and allowances be granted as shall enable soldiers or their dependents, as the case may be, to maintain a liberal standard of living sufficient to guarantee health, education and all necessities, comforts and amenities which go to make a standard of living worthy of Canadian citizenship.

WOMAN SUIGIDE OF CHILD FOUND DEAD IN WELL

Wyoming Jury Connects Two Tragic Events in Life of Mrs. Alfred Brett.

WYOMING, Aug. 7.—The jury which inquired into the death of the monthold child whose body was found in a cistern here Wednedday morning, tonight decided that the infant was the child of Mrs. Alfred Brett, who committed quicide at Paris, Ont., about a month ago. By their verdict the jurors thus linked up two tragic events in the life of Mrs. Brett, the death of the infant providing the probable motive for her taking her own life.

The body was found by J. Nicholson of Alvinston in about four feet of water in the cistern on the property owned by Mrs. Simon Casey. Mr. Nicholson was preparing to move into the property. Provincial Detective Stringer and Coroner Dr. Refd immediately took up the case, and through startling developments were looked for, the jury tonight turned what had been rumors jnto tacts.

startling developments were looked for, the jury tonight turned what had been rumors into lacts.

The body was so badly devamposed after about 11 months in the water that it could not be established whether it had been dead before entering the cistern or drowned. Mrs. Brett, wao had formerly lived here, had come to Wyoming, supposedly on a visit. The child was born here shortly after her arrival. She and the child lived here about a month and then she left for the home of her mother in Paris.

It was supposed she had taken the child with her. Evidence brought out tonight, showed that this was not the case, and that she had left town alone. On arrival at Paris, it is said, that she explained that the child had been born dead. Her husband, who is a returned soldier and who was present at the inquest tonight, later came to Wyoming, and on his return to Paris she committed suicide.

The finding of the jury tonight discloses the probable cause that led her, being unable to face the questioning of her husband, to end her own life.
