"The inter-league schedule will be made public on March 19, and it is sure to meet with the approval of International League fans. I believe that the series will prove extremely popular. The appearance of the American Association teams in our cities will arouse much interest for the American that the sppearance of the American Association teams in our cities will arouse much interest for the reason that the fans will see many new faces for the first time.

The International League teams will be greatly strengthened in order to make a good showing against their association rivuls. We will have a new owner for the Providence Club in a few days, also a capable manager. Pat Donovan will lead the Buffalo Club again and he will have a powerful team. Jack Dunn will handle the Bakimores, and already he has secured some first-class men. Billy
