

ADMITS PAYING MEMBER $1000

Timber Contractor Makes Sensational Statement Concerning Berth Permit.

That he had paid $1000 to Capt. Machin, ex-M.L.A., in connection with the granting of a timber permit, was the sensational statement made by Charles Henry Greer, timber contractor, of Port Arthur before the Justice Riddell timber commission at the parliament buildings yesterday afternoon.

In his evidence, Greer stated that he and his partner, G. E. Farlinger, who knew what he (Greer) was tendering, had both submitted tenders for block 832, which was awarded to him in October, 1912. He also acquired block 10 the same month. It was for consideration in respect of these deals, witness said, that he had had $1000 wired from his account at the Royal Bank, West Port William, to Kenora, on Sept. 14, 1912, to pay to Capt. Machin.

"Tell us the circumstances," said Justice Riddell.

"Is it necessary I should have to tell?" he asked.

"Yes. The people of the province want to know."

Greer said he had gone to Kenora to see Capt. Machin.

"Did you see anyone else?" "Yes. I saw Mr. Hearst, at that time minister of forests and lands."

Wanted Two Berths.

Greer said he told Mr. Hearst he wanted two timber berths, that someone else had tendered nearly an equal price, and he thought he should have the preference, as he had a mill. Mr. Hearst told him it should receive consideration, said Greer.

"Machin intimated to me that if he (Machin) had $1000 I could make sure of the berth."

Witness accordingly had the money wired to the Traders' Bank, Kenora. Asked if Farlinger, his partner, had put up half the $1000 alleged to have been paid to Col. Machin, Greer said that he did "afterwards."

Mr. Harding, "Did this happen on any other occasion?" "Yes."

Paid for Liquor Licenses.

"How much?" "Three or four times, about $1000, for liquor licenses."

He paid $500 once to Col. Little, chairman of the license commissioners, he said.

Justice Riddell: "It was either that or blackmail."

Justice Latchford pointed out that Greer and his partner were the only two who tendered for block 832. "A man doesn't pay $1000 for nothing," he said. "If he is the highest bidder and is going to get his tender accepted there is no need to pay $1000."

Witness said he thought there might be a higher bid.

Justice Riddell said that Col. Machin would be required to produce his letter files and bank book.

Col. Little will also be recalled and must produce his bank book.

William Hearst, remained as yet untouched, but he might desire to say something.

The commissioners leave for a holiday on Wednesday, but will return any time for the examinations of Colonels Little and Machin, and the cross-examination of Greer.

Mr. McEvev said that if Col. Machin endeavored to impeach Greer's evidence he had plenty of corroboration.

CIVIL SERVANTS PLANS AWAIT DRURY'S RETURN

The absence of Premier Drury and several of his cabinet ministers yesterday somewhat upset the plans of the civil servants in the employ of the Ontario government, who had to present to the Drury government their memorial asking for a general increase in salaries. The memorial will now be presented on Friday to a full cabinet by a committee of some fifty civil servants.

It is pointed out in the memorial, a copy of which was found on the desks of all the cabinet yesterday morning, that there has not been a general increase of wages since 1914, and that civil servants are now being paid on a pro-war basis. "Reclassification" of the civil service, as suggested by Premier Drury, is not favored by the government employees, who are practically unanimous in their demand for increases.

Who is held on remand at the jail on a charge of beating his wife. Mrs. Henshaw's condition is now so critical that he may have to face a more serious charge.

WIFE MAY DIE; HUSBAND IN JAIL

Her eyes were closed. She complained of head injuries and pains in the throat. Her condition at the time was not regarded as serious, and she was able to walk from the house to a police car, in which she was driven to St. Michael's Hospital. The husband was locked up, and is being held on remand in the jail on the charge laid by the police until his wife is reported out of danger.

Turn for Worse.

Last evening the police were informed by the hospital doctors that Mrs. Henshaw had taken a turn for the worse, and it was not thought she would live thru the night. County Crown Attorney Greer, Judge Cohen and a police stenographer hurried to the hospital to take an ante-mortem statement at the woman's bedside.

There was some difference of opinion as to Mrs. Henshaw's condition, and Mr. Greer decided not to take a statement from Mrs. Henshaw.

It was learned from the hospital that the injured woman has been in a semi-conscious condition for the past three days.

Jealousy and drink is said by members of the family to be the cause of the fight. Mrs. Henshaw is 42 years of age, and has eleven children. The husband is 47 years of age, and served in the Canadian army for five years. He was in Salonika with the 4th Canadian General Hospital.

At Osgoode Hall yesterday, Mr. Justice Orde refused to allow Hyman Siegel to carry out a sale under the powers contained in a chattel mortgage of the effects in the dental office of his son David I. Siegel, of West Dundas street. Another action is pending in which the son is suing his father, and on this ground his lordship decided that proceedings under the chattel mortgage be delayed.

Prisoner called upon the E. C. Currie Company and obtained silk goods valued at $1,700, on the representation that he was recommended by a local firm.

TORONTO NURSES HOLD THEIR ANNUAL PARTY

Toronto nurses had a delightful social hour last night at their annual party, held at 295 Sherbourne street. Festive flags flung across the entrance pointed the way to a charming garden buttressed with a wonderful ivy-covered wall with little flags here and there among the foliage, the windows peering out between just as in castles of ancient story.

The guests were received by Mrs. Bowman, superintendent of the Women's College Hospital; Miss Matthews, head of the isolation institution, and Miss Gunn, superintendent of the General Hospital. An orchestra played in the house, which was decorated with large bouquets of marguerites, and a musical program was given by Mrs. Clarence Thompson and Miss Ruth Blanchard, Miss Foote and the orchestra accompanying. Dancing and refreshments served from little tables on the lawn and passed round by a bevy of pretty girls added to the enjoyment. It was expected that Dr. Cutler would give an address, but unfortunately the doctor was called away in the early part of the evening. The party was pronounced on all sides to be one of the most pleasant events of the season.

STOLE TAG MONEY; JAIL FOR CULPRITS

TORONTO'S NEW LINK WITH THE PACIFIC

Government-Owned Railways Linked Up to Make New Transcontinental.

Sunday last was an important day in the life of New Ontario. On that day was effected the practical consolidation of the Canadian National and Grand Trunk Railways, and that consolidation is all important to New Ontario, because of the greatly improved railway service that follows as a matter of course. It is true that this consolidation of lines is, first of all, of importance, because it gives the Canadian National Railways the splendid new transcontinental service that has long been the dream of those men who wanted to see the old Grand Trunk take its place as a worthy competitor on equal ground with the C. P. R. and has more recently been the desire of those who were anxious to see Canada's government-owned lines achieve the full measure of their efficient service to all parts of this country.

Seeing New Ontario.

The first of this improved transcontinental service left Toronto at day night, carrying on board a large party of newspaper men who were taken as far as Cochrane and given an excellent opportunity to view the tremendous development that is taking place in North Ontario.

The term New Ontario is rapidly becoming a misnomer. The country is new now, but at the rate at which development is taking place it will soon be so well settled and its business connections with old Ontario so well established as to wipe out all mere distinctions of age.

This new Toronto transcontinental service, which incidentally is also a new North Ontario service, is a thing of vast importance to the Canadian National lines. It is a new link between Ontario and the Pacific coast and it is the first big step in co-ordinating the various railways which have come under government ownership. The service is in its infancy, but it has at one stroke created a new line from Central Ontario to the west and a new outlet to the east for western products.

The linking up of the various government-owned roads between Toronto and Vancouver is interesting. Last Sunday's train, which is now a daily feature of the National service, left Toronto at midnight (daylight saving time). To North Bay it ran over the G.T.R. line. From there to Cochrane it was on the T. & N. O. From there west to Winnipeg it ran on the Canadian National, and from there it will proceed to Edmonton by the Grand Trunk Pacific, and from there on to the coast over the Canadian National.

This new daily passenger train known as the "National." Its equipment consists of standard Canadian built steel sleepers, tourist sleepers, dining cars, first-class coaches and colonist leave Vancouver, making connections with one from Prince Rupert to follow the intermediate points, including Now Bay, Cobalt and Cochrane will henceforth have the advantage of an added train a day both east and west or north and south. The service is known as the Canadian National-Grand Trunk and this is but one of several co-ordinations that are being arranged to strengthen the Canadian National service.

ANNOYED BY DELAY.

Because G.T.R. Gateman Denis O'Leary at the Bay street, railway crossing attempted to prevent him from crossing the tracks while the gates were down, Frank Manns, colored, 125 York street, struck him causing him to fall and break his shoulder bone. O'Leary was taken to his home, at 252 Garden avenue, by the police ambulance. Manns was arrested by Policeman Dawson on a charge of assault.

Tartar on Teeth

Shows That You Don't Clean Them—Note These Facts

All Statements Approved by High Dental Authorities

This is to men and women who find that brushed teeth discolor and decay. Who find that tartar forms, or pyorrhea starts. You are not keeping teeth clean. You let a film remain and the damage is traced to it.

Dental science has found a way to end film. It is now embodied in a dainty tooth paste which millions are employing. We urge you to try it ten days at our cost and see the results for yourself.

That Film on Teeth Can Now Be Ended in This Way

You can feel on your teeth a slimy film, ever-present, ever-forming. That film is the great tooth wrecker. Dental science now traces nearly all tooth troubles to it.

The film clings to the teeth, gets between the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The tooth brush does not end it. The ordinary dentifrice does not dissolve it. So millions find that teeth discolor and decay despite the daily brushing.

Why Teeth Discolor

That film is what discolors—not the teeth. It is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Dental science, after years of searching, has found a way to combat film. Many able authorities have proved its efficiency. For five years it has been subjected to every sort of clinical and laboratory test.

Now, for home use, it is embodied in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. Leading dentists all over America are now urging its adoption.

This week we offer a 10-Day Tube to anyone who asks. And we urge that someone in every home prove its unique effects.

Based on Pepsin

Pepsodent is based on pepsin, the digestant of albumin. The film is albuminous matter. The object of Pepsodent is to dissolve it, then to constantly combat it.

Pepsin long seemed impossible. It must be activated, and the usual agent is an acid harmful to the teeth. Dental science has now discovered a harmless activating method. And now everyone can fight the film with active pepsin constantly.

See What It Does

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Use like any tooth paste. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the fixed film disappears.

Watch the results and read the reason for them. Compare this new method with the old. Then adopt for yourself and have your children adopt the method which seems best. This is of lifetime importance to you. Cut out the coupon so you won't forget.

Look Now

That film, to some extent, clouds nearly every set of teeth. And most tooth troubles are now traced to it.

Look in Ten Days

See how the teeth whiten—how they glisten—as the fixed film disappears. Then you will know there is a way to cleaner, safer teeth.
