DIPLOMAT AND ORATOR AT THE EMPIRE CLUB

Dr. Henry Van Dyke Tells of Pleasant International Relations.

Dr. Henry Van Dyke, the United States poet, orator and diplomatist, addressed a large meeting of the Empire Club at the Saturday luncheon when the ordinary attendance was re-enforced by the lady friends of the members.

Arthur Hewitt introduced speaker, reading one of Dr. Van Dyke's popular poems.

Dr. Van Dyke ingratiated himself with his audience by hoping that the ladies would not feel inconvenienced by the rule that forbade smoking. After the laughter had subsided he said that he had visited Canada every year for forty years. He spoke of his familiarity with the country and of what he knew of the war when "your boys and our boys fought side by "I lay the maple leaf and the laurel

MONTREAL READY FOR PRINCE'S VISIT

Quebec Metropolis Also Prepared to Entertain Cardinal Mercier.

Special to The Sunday World. Montreal, Oct. 25 .- One of the biggest weeks in the annals of Montreal begins next Monday, when the Prince of Wales, Cardinal Mercier and the Victory loan committee will figure prominently in the program. The prince will arrive on Monday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, the cardinal will arrive Friday, the loan drive will start on Monday, but Tuesday will be the big day, when it will combine with the Victory parade for the great send-off.

The city is already gay with color for the royal visit of a week. Over 7500 electric lights have been installed in the decorations the Canadian Paci-fic Railway is using on the Windsor street station. There will also be the usual dances, dinners, parades and reviews, with their presentation of medals to war heroes.

> After all is said and done, the public is the real motor car connois-seur; endless experiments may be made with new models—endurance tests conducted for months or even years—inspections made at regular intervals, and all of that, which usuprecedes a new innovation, to that degree where it is pronounced perfect by the manufacturer. Yet, if there is a weak point in its construction, it doesn't take the public long to determine the seriousness of it all. We pride ourselves on the com-plete and thoro method of lubrication in this new Six, which has been received and pronounced by the pubbeing as near perfect in design and functon as it is possible to in-corporate in a motor car today.
