Since the above date nearly $4000 of subscriptions have been collected, and on 15th June about $6000 of subscriptions, good on paper, fall due. Still should the best hopes be realized and the whole of these be promptly paid in, it may be seen that the Fund will be raised only to about $74,000, leaving a deficiency of $6000 to be made up before the $80,000 are complete and the whole available for its intended purpose.

Under these lamentable circumstances, when all other sources of pecuniary aid are exhausted or rapidly diminishing, and the very life of the Church depends-under God-upon this Fund, the Committee again appeal to all Churchmen in this Diocese to come to the rescue, and complete this deficiency without delay.
