WEDDINGS

The tug is insured for $5,000.

A Russian family arrived in the city yesterday morning ill with trachoma, and they are now said to be residing with a north end Jewish family. All except the father entered Canada from Newfoundland. Some action in the case will probably be taken. The United States immigration officials stopped the family at this port.

The organ recital to be given in St. Andrew's church next Monday evening, January 14th, by Professor Blair, of Montreal, is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest by musical people who will be glad to hear this gifted son of New Brunswick. A few of our leading local talent will also take part as soloists.

Manager Gorbell, of the Seamen's Institute, acknowledges the receipt of $33.60 from Capt. J. A. Murray, of the steamer Empress of Britain. The donation was made through Purser J. Webster and represents the proceeds of collections taken on the steamer during the voyage out. It will be applied to the institute funds. ST. LUKE'S CLOCK

Should be Kept Running and Its Face Illuminated at Night.
Citizens of the north end, who find it a great convenience to have the clock in the tower of St. Luke's church, Main street, in good running order, to give them the time, feel that something should be done to keep it in running order.
