THE FLOWERS.

BY C. D. STUART.

There is a legend old as earth,
But beautiful and true,
Which tells us how the flowers had birth,
And wherefore came the dew.

When Eve, through Satan's sore deceit,
Touched the forbidden tree,
And tempted her "good man" to eat,
The Lord came angrily;

And straightway turned from Eden's bowers,
These first-born sinners forth,
Away from all its smiling flowers—
Upon the barren earth.

But pitying—ere to Heaven he passed—
His angels—brothers then—
O'er all the earth their footprints cast,
And hill, and vale, and glen.

Sparkled with flowers—earth's starry spheres—
And ere they fled from view,
They strewed the flowers with pitying tears,
Which since have passed for dew.

And thus, though Paradise was lost
By first of human kind,
Their children know, though sorely crossed,
God's love is left behind.

A Yankee paper says that—

"Love assails,
And warms, 'mid seas of ice, the melting whales,
Fires the cramped cod, fierce pangs to perch imparts,
Shrinks shrivelled shrimps, and opens oysters' hearts."

SANDWICH ISLANDS.

REMARKABLE TEMPERANCE FACT.—Alcoholic drinks are obtainable in one form and another at Hilo, though no licensed groggeries exist. There are merchants who sell it in the guise of "pain-killers" and the like; many, out of the several thousands of sailors who land there in the course of a year, find the means of "gratifying an all-devouring thirst for brutalizing stimulants"; and still, says Mr. Coan, "I have spent sixteen years in constant intercourse with the Hawaiians; and yet I have never seen a drunken native. Not that natives do now not and then fall under the power of this temptation, but the cases are comparatively so few that no one has fallen under my observation." What a different picture would have to be drawn if the gospel had not been there, accompanied by the mighty power of God.

THIS POWER STILL EXERTED.—At Hilo, four hundred are connected with the Sabbath school; at the out-stations nearly every child is gathered into these nurseries of the church. Many of the children have been among the inquirers, and some appear to have passed from death unto life. Seven-eighths of the population attend public worship. The truth preached is accompanied by the influences of the Spirit. During the last year one hundred and sixty-nine were received into the church on profession of their faith. The contributions to foreign benevolent objects have exceeded those of any former year. Of these, $620 were given to the American Board.

Foreigners becoming Citizens of the Sandwich Islands.—The number of foreigners who took the oath of allegiance to the Sandwich Islands government the last year, is 151; of whom 69 were citizens of the United States, 37 of Great Britain, 12 of China, 1 of Africa, and only 1 of France.

Support of Schools at the Sandwich Islands.—Wherever fifteen scholars can be collected at the Sandwich Islands, a school is authorized and sustained by the government.

Vessels at Honolulu.—In 1850, 211 American whalers and 277 American merchant vessels, 2 British whalers and 124 British merchant vessels, and 14 French whalers and only 8 French merchant vessels, arrived at Honolulu.

A Properous Government.—The receipts of the Sandwich Islands government for the year ending March 31, 1843, were, in round numbers, $41,000; for the year 1850, $194,000; and for 1851, $284,000, which is $79,-888 56 more than the expenditures.

TRADE WITH BRITISH PROVINCES.—British vessels from Prince Edward Island are hereafter to be admitted into United States ports on the same footing as our own vessels; and U. S. vessels are to be admitted to P. E. I. on like terms with British vessels—the same as with Canada, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.—Boston Post.

THE MAINE LIQUOR LAW.—The enactment of laws, on the part of the Maine Legislature, excluding rum, as a beverage, from the State limits, can no longer be considered as an experiment of doubtful issue. A Portland correspondent of the Newburyport Union says:

"The temperance law is operating much more favorably than was anticipated. There is less resistance on the part of the sellers, and a strong determination with the authorities to drive the whole family of rum from the State. Should the law be supported, it will no doubt lead to its adoption throughout New-England. They look upon and treat the means of drunkenness here, as you do the means of gambling, which are confiscated. For two months there have been no commitments for intemperance in the city, and I learn from the overseers of the poor, that it is having a visible effect in that department. If the reform continues, an alms house may yet become the retreat of the unfortunate and the invalid, free from all association with vice and crime."

Cuba is 624 miles in extreme length, with an average width of about 60 miles, containing an area of 37,000 square miles and a population of 1,590,000. The value of its agricultural productions in 1849 was $62,781,035. Its exports during the same period were $27,380,-921, of which $8,790,221 were to the United States. Its imports during the same period were $26,707,343, of which $7,289,214 were from the United States. The amount of American tonnage employed in the trade with the island, during the same period was 591,267, tons. The total amount of taxes levied upon American commerce with the island, in the shape of duties upon imports, tonnage, duties, and duties upon exports, exceeds $4,000,000 annually. There are 359 miles of railroad in operation upon the Island. Of the $27,000,000 of annual imports, according to official documents, $16,000,000 are in provisions, lumber, fabrics, materials, &c., which the one or the other of the United States could furnish more readily than any other country, but, through the taxes and restrictions imposed by Spanish policy, not more than one third of it comes from the fields and factories of the United States.—American paper.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Let children be early taught to set a true and just value upon public opinion. Show them how the world has already treated its greatest men—how it has stoned its prophets, crucified its Saviours, martyred its Apostles. Show how fickle—how indiscriminating it is to this day—how ignorance speaks with the same confidence, or even with more, than knowledge—how the heights and depths of the greatest minds are measured at once by the conceit of the smallest. Show how hard it is for people to praise, how easy to blame. Call the attention of the young to the kind of criticisms current of both men and things in this much dreaded society, and let them say, if they really seek excellence, whether they ought to value such criticism. When they have mastered any one subject, let them listen to the flippant, trivial, conceited, shallow judgments of the world of their acquaintance upon it, and let them learn from that to appreciate the worth of public opinion, and judge whether the desire of fame, based upon such a public opinion, is worth striving for, or ought much to influence their motives to action. To appreciate a great man, requires, if not one as great, still a great man, and the judgments of the world therefore must be either borrowed or erroneous—more frequently the latter, as self-conceit usually supplies any deficiency of talent.

"Whatever Nature has in worth denied,
She gives in large recruits of needful pride."

Upon whom does Fame bestow her rewards? Rarely upon those who most deserve them.—Does conscience approve the judgment even of the most intimate friends with respect to our characters; how, then, can we expect the world or posterity to do justice; and praise or blame that is not discriminating and just, who would value? The originators of useful reforms are generally persecuted; they who really work, and, in the modest quiet of their studies, gradually prepare the world for new truths, are unnoticed and neglected; but he who becomes the mouth-piece of this public opinion, who has brains enough to appreciate but not to originate, and who can talk—this is the man whom the world pays and fame immortalizes.—Education of the Feelings, by Charles Bray.

CURIOUS REMEDY FOR SEA-SICKNESS.—At the late meeting of the British Association, at Ipswich, a paper was read "On Sea-sickness, and a new Remedy for its Prevention," by J. Atkinson. The method which the writer had found successful in preventing sea-sickness, is as follows:—"Let a person on ship-board, when the vessel is bounding over the waves, seat himself, and take hold of a tumbler nearly filled with water or other liquid, and at the same time make an effort to prevent the liquid from running over, by keeping the mouth of the glass horizontal, or nearly so. When doing this, from the motion of the vessel, his hand and arm will seem to be drawn into different positions, as if the glass were attracted by a powerful magnet. Continuing his efforts to keep the mouth of the glass horizontal, let him allow his hand, arm, and body, to go through the various movements—as those observed in sawing, planing, pumping. throwing a quoit, &c.—which they will be impelled, without fatigue, almost irresistibly to perform; and he will find that this has the effect of preventing the giddiness and nausea that the rolling and tossing of the vessel have a tendency to produce in inexperienced voyagers. If the person is suffering from sickness at the commencement of his experiment, as soon as he grasps the glass of liquid in his hand, and suffers his arm to take its course and go through the movements alluded to, he feels as if he were performing them of his own free will—and the nausea abates immediately, and very soon ceases entirely, and does not return so long as he suffers his arm and body to assume the postures into which they seem to be drawn. Should he, however, resist the free course of his hand, he instantly feels a thrill of pain of a peculiarly stunning kind shoot through his head, and experiences a sense of dizziness and returning nausea. From this last circumstance the author of the paper infers it as probable, that the stomach is primarily affected through the cerebal mass, and he is of opinion that the method of preventing sea-sickness just described (which he has found by experience to be effectual) depends on the curious fact, that the involuntary motion communicated to the body by the rolling and tossing of the vessel are by the means he adopts apparently converted into voluntary motion.

INHALATION OF ETHER IN SORE THROAT.—At the last meeting of the Suffolk district Medical Society, a case of the abscess of the throat was mentioned, wherein the patient could not swallow liquids for some days, in consequence of the severe pain which was produced. It was therefore determined to try the effects of inhaling ether. When the patient began to feel its intoxicating properties, he was at once enabled to swallow without pain or difficulty—which was done most greedily. The suggestion and application of this most valuable remedy were matters of great importance; and it is the communication of such cases at the monthly meeting of the Society, which makes them practically useful to the members.—Medical & Surgical Journal.

Farming Inconsistencies.

Farmers dig their gardens two feet deep, but only plough their land five inches. They take especial care of their nag horses in a good warm stable, but expose their farm horses and cattle to all weathers. They deny the utility of drainage in strong tenacious clays, but dare not dig an underground cellar in such soils, because the water would get in. They waste their liquid manure, but buy guano from Peru to repair the loss; and some practical men, who are in ecstacies with the urine of the sheepfold, have been known seriously to doubt the benefit of liquid manure. But it may be asked, "Where is the capital to come from for all these improvements?" The reply will be, "Where does the capital come from to make railways and docks, to build steam vessels, to erect a whole town of new squares and streets, and to carry out every other useful and profitable undertaking?"—Paper read by Mr. Mechi at the Society of Arts.

ANECDOTE OF DR. WAYLAND.—We notice the following from a correspondent of the Religious Herald:

"It is said of Rev. Dr. Wayland, that he began to preach quite early in life, without the advantages of an education.—One day he met with the Rev. Mr. Stanford, of New York, who advised young Wayland to obtain an education. But he replied he did not suppose God had need of human wisdom to advance his cause in the world. To which Mr. Stanford made the following sensible answer: Nor does God need human ignorance to promote his cause. This candid reproof entered so deeply into this young man that all his energies were soon turned towards obtaining an education. Happily for mankind he did not fail. Let us then, as Christians, ever be prompt, not to slander, but to consult, advise with each other, and if need be, reprove too."

The Great Cough Remedy.

BLISS'S COMPOUND

COD LIVER OIL CANDY,

(The Original and Only Genuine.)

Prepared only by B. K. BLISS, (Sole Proprietor.) Druggist and Apothecary, Springfield, Mass.

A New and Effectual Remedy for Coughs, Common Colds, Cold in the Head, Hoarseness, Bronchites, Asthma, Tickling in the Throat, and all Diseases of the Lungs, and Bronchial Affections.

THE wonderful curative powers of Cod Liver Oil, in all cases of COUGHS, COLDS, and CONSUMPTION, have been clearly demonstrated by the experience of the most distinguished physicians of Europe and America, during the last two or three years. It has been used in all parts of this country with great success, by the advice of our most eminent physicians. Dr. Williams, an eminent English Physician, asserts, that during the last two and a half years, he has preserved notes of 234 cases of consumption, where the Cod Liver Oil was used, and that, in 206 of these, the use of the Oil was followed by marked and unequivocal improvement, ranging in degree from the mitigation of the symptoms up to a complete restoration to apparent health. Some of these cases were persons in an advanced stage of this dire disease, and the cures were almost miraculous.

Since the introduction of Cod Liver Oil into general use a great desideratum has been to furnish an article with the same medicinal virtue, but free from its disagreeable odor and taste, which have rendered it a "sealed book" to thousands of persons who are suffering under severe affections of the throat and lungs. After a series of experiments, the proprietor has succeeded in so combining the pure Oil with other celebrated curatives, in the form of a most AGREEABLE CANDY, possessing and preserving all the medicinal virtues of Pure Cod Liver Oil, without its nauseous and repulsive taste, presenting it in a form by which it can be administered to the most delicate invalid without inconvenience. So pleasant is the taste, that it may be administered to an infant without difficulty.

If you wish a rich, luxuriant head of Hair, free from dandruff and scurf, do not fail to procure the genuine Balm of Columbia. In cases of baldness, it will more than exceed your expectations. Many who have lost their hair for twenty years, have had it restored to its original perfection by the use of this balm. Age, state, or condition, appears to be no obstacle whatever; it also causes the fluid to flow with which the delicate hair tubes is filled, by which means thousands (whose hair was gray as the Asiatic eagle) have had their hair restored to its natural colour by this invaluable remedy. In all cases of fever it will be found the most pleasant wash that can be used. A few applications only are necessary to keep the hair from falling out. It strengthens the roots; it never fails to impart a rich glossy appearance, and as a perfume for the toilet it is unequalled. It holds three times as much as other miscalled hair restoratives, and is more effectual.

☞ CAUTION.—Never buy it unless you find the name of Comstock & Co., proprietors, on the wrapper of each bottle, or you are cheated with a counterfeit article.

Astonishing Efficacy

OF

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS And OINTMENT.

EXTRAORDINARY CURES BY

Holloway's Ointment.

CURE OF A DESPERATE CASE OF ERYSIPELAS.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Joseph Gildon, Jun., a Farmer, East Kent, near Spilsby, Lincolnshire, 8th April, 1846.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I have the gratification to announce to you a most wonderful cure wrought upon myself, by the use of your Ointment and Pills. I had a severe attack of Erysipelas in my right foot, which extended along my ancle, and was attended with swelling and inflammation to an alarming degree, insomuch that I was unable to move without the use of crutches. I consulted a very eminent Physician, besides other Medical men, but to no purpose. At last I tried your Ointment and Pills, when, strange to say, in less than two weeks the swelling and inflammation subsided to such a degree that I was enabled to pursue my daily avocation, to the utter surprise and amazement of those who were acquainted with my case, seeing that I was cured so quickly. I and my family are well known here, as my father holds his farm under the Rev. J. Spence, Rector of our Parish.

JOSEPH GILDON.

Amputation of Two Legs Prevented.

Extract of a Letter dated Roscommon, February 20th, 1847, from the highly respectable Proprietor of the Roscommon Journal.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR—Mr. Ryan, the well known proprietor of the Hotel next door to me, had two very Bad Legs one with eight ulcers on it, the other with three they were in such a fearful state that the effluvia from them was very great. Some time since he made a journey to Dublin for the purpose of consulting some of the most eminent professional men, but returned home to his family with the choice of two alternatives—to have both Legs amputated, or die!—On his way home he met a gentleman in the Coach who recommended the use of Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which he had recourse to, and was perfectly cured by their means.

Editor and Proprietor of the Roscommon Journal.

Bad Digestion, with extreme Weakness and Debility—an extraordinary Cure.

Mr. T. GARDINER, of No. 9, Brown street, Grosvenor square, had been in a very bad state of health for a long time, suffering much from a distended Stomach, very impaired digestion, with constant pains in his Chest, was extremely nervous, and so greatly debilitated as to be scarcely able to walk one hundred yards; during the long period of his declining he had the advice of four of the most eminent Physicians besides five Surgeons of the greatest celebrity in London, from whose aid he derived no benefit whatever. At last he had recourse to Holloway's Pills, which he declares effected a perfect cure in a very short time, and that he is now as strong and vigorous as ever he was in his life. This being so extraordinary a case, may lead many persons almost to doubt this statement, it may therefore be necessary to say that Mr. Gardiner is a broker, and well known.

Cure of a Desperate Scorbutic Eruption of long standing.

Extract of a Letter, dated Wolverhampton the 10th of February, 1847, confirmed by Mr. Simpson, Stationer.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—Having been wonderfully restored from a state of great suffering, illness and debility, by the use of your Pills and Ointment, I think it right for the sake of others to make my case known to you. For the last two years I was afflicted with a violent Scorbutic Eruption, which completely covered my chest, and other parts of my body, causing such violent pain, that I can in truth say, that for months I was not able to get sleep for more than a very short time together. I applied here to all the principal Medical men, as also to those in Birmingham, without getting the least relief; at last I was recommended by Mr. Thomas Simpson, Stationer Market-place, to try your Pills and Ointment, which I did, and I am happy to say, that I may consider myself as thoroughly cured, I can now sleep all the night through, and the pain in my back and limbs have entirely left me.

(Signed) RICHARD HAVELL.
