DR. ROLLER FAILED TO THROW BALSA

Former Lessor Not Disturbed by Canadian Champion's Tricky Holds—Result of Great Wrestling Tourney

New York, Nov. 17.—Alex Aberg, the world's Greco-Roman champion, had a hard task holding his title in a finish match at the international wrestling tournament at the Manhattan Opera House last night. Aberg won his match against Heimer Johnson of Sweden with a leg, and arm hold after forty-eight minutes and twenty-three seconds of the most sensational wrestling that has been seen in the tournament.

The big Swedish defence was so good that he had the crowd cheering him every time he slipped out of the Russian's grasp. Three times Aberg had Johnson down with a hammer-lock, but the nimble Swede slid out of them in a manner which made Aberg wild with rage. Johnson's battle was one of defence only, and although he was able to hold the Russian champion at bay for more than forty-eight minutes, at the end he was completely exhausted, and had to be carried from the mat.

The international tournament is working up to much partisan feeling among the spectators that last night the management had to warn the onlookers to observe strictly the spirit of neutrality. The notice handed out to the spectators read: "Refrain from any demonstration of international prejudice. Remember it is a sporting event, and America is proud of its justice and fairness. As soon as Charley Cutler of Chicago threw Tom Drank of Holland, the American was immediately challenged by the unfatigable Finlander, Sulo Heronpas. Cutler tried all the holds he could think of on the Finn, but the best he could get after twenty minutes of feverish wrestling was a draw. Benetines Tufans of Greece won a decided victory over Deliruk of Austria with a head and chancery hold in 2:31.

One of the surprises of the tournament was the failure of Dr. Ben Roller to dispose of Bala, a Spanish wrestler. Roller, usually clever in nailing his opponents down with deadly arm holds, failed to baffle the former torador. Bala, who has been used to fighting bulls before the holiday crowds in Madrid, was not in the least disturbed at Roller's trick holds. The Spaniard's stubborn defence got him out of much trouble. After twenty minutes of grueling work, Referee George Bothner called the bout a draw.

Wladislaw Zyzak of Poland had an easy time with Fritz Wagner of Germany, and pinned the Teuton to the mat with a reverse body lock hold in less than three minutes. The summary:

Totals of Greece defeated Deliruk of Austria with 4 hold and chancery hold in 2:31.

SUGGESTS START FOR Y.W.C.A. BUILDING HERE

Miss Una Saunders, National Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. for Canada, delivered an interesting address in the High School auditorium last evening. The speaker told of the work of the association and said that during the last year they had assisted to educate about 4,000 girls and that physical culture had been given to 6,000. She explained the need for travelers' aid work and told how the number of those associated had increased from 7,000 to 31,000 in the last five years. Miss Saunders then suggested two plans to further the work along these lines. In this city, that some bands of workers already in the city should affiliate with the National Y. W. C. A., and secondly, that a provincial committee of women representing the different churches should wait for the right moment for a real campaign for a proper building for the Y. W. C. A. Yesterday afternoon Miss Saunders was the guest of honor at a luncheon given at the Manor house by Mrs. P. R. Warren.

ELLIS CASE HAS NOT BEEN FINISHED

He is to Keep up Contest For Custody of Child

Tokio, Oct. 21.—(Correspondence)—Mrs. Harriet A. Ellis of Massachusetts has won the first decision in the battle for the possession of her child, which has engaged the attention of two continents. As reported by cable yesterday the District Court of Tokio handed down a judgment against John Ellis in the suit brought by his wife for the permanent possession of their eight-year-old daughter, Olga Natalie.

Mr. Ellis at once made an appeal to the Tokio Court of Appeal, announcing through his lawyer at the same time, that if the Appeal Court rules against him he will continue the fight to the Supreme Court of Japan. It is expected that the case will require another six months or a year for definite settlement.

for a temporary order from the court for the immediate custody of the child pending the result of the appeal. This temporary possession will probably be opposed by the defendant.

The Japanese court reached its decision without going into the question of the respective fitness of the parents to act as the girl's guardian. The judges refused to consider this point of the case. They held that the decision of the court of Massachusetts, from which Mrs. Ellis had two decrees, giving her the custody of her daughter, has created a legal status that ought to be recognized in Japan, just as the status of marriage performed abroad is recognized here.

The decision was based largely on consideration of public policy, it being the attitude of the court that a judgment against Mrs. Ellis would affect the validity of the law of Japan in similar cases in the United States.

Mr. Ellis who is a teacher of English in the Higher Commercial School, took his daughter from his wife in 1913 and came to Japan. An attempt to have him extradited having failed, Mrs. Ellis herself came to Japan to begin the fight for the custody of her daughter. All attempts at reconciliation of the couple have failed.

Not Doing His Share

The big sister decided the children could not sit up until mother came home. Tommy did not care; Willie cried lustily. When the sister retired he cried more loudly. She waited for a few moments at the foot of the stairs to hear if he became quiet. At last he stopped and this is what the sister heard—"Tommy, you cry a bit now; I'm tired."
