FOR DRIVING THROUGH SQUARE. No fewer than three men were reported today for driving through Queen Square, Carleton. All said yes but gave an excuse in each case that the road was very deceptive and although there were signs forbidding traffic it appeared to be intended for foot passengers. One said that the roads in that section of Carleton were so narrow that one could hardly tell them from by-paths anyway. Those reported were T. Carlton Olive, Charles Osmani, and Bartholomew Worden. Each was fined $2.

THE POLICE COURT. The trouble which several North End families have been having over the right to get water from the well near the Shamrock grounds was finally disposed of this morning. D. Mullin, K. C., appeared on behalf of the owners of the property and said that all the tenants had equal rights to the water, but that London had leased the land last year and apparently thought that he had superior rights this year. The charge brought against London had been that of using abusive and profane language to his neighbors. For this offence a fine of $8 or two months was imposed, but was allowed to stand. His Honor warned him that if he ever caused trouble again he would be arrested without notice.

A man who was arrested yesterday in the old Burying Ground on charge of using profane language was remanded. One man charged with drunkenness was remanded.

Her's was the highest mark made by the city pupils on geometry. Lynman Anglin was third with a total of 190. ON HUNGER STRIKE IN AMHERST JAIL. (Amherst News) James Simpson, the keeper of the Amherst jail, has a prisoner in his charge at present on a hunger strike. The prisoner in question is not a fair specimen ready to sacrifice himself for the benefit of the cause but a rather irromantic citizen of Cumberland rejecting in the name of Havelock Carter. Mr. Carter in the halcyon days of his youth won a more than local reputation as a first class temperance orator but in these latter days, he has either seen a greater vision of personal liberty or has wandered from the puritanic principles that governed his early life.

Mr. Carter is just now serving a ninety days' sentence for a violation of the Canadian Temperance Act imposed upon him by Stipendiary Judge of Oxford. He was brought to Amherst just a week ago and since his incarceration he has simply lain in the bunk in his cell and has positively refused to take any nourishment of any kind whatever. Mr. Simpson sent for a physician last Friday who made an examination of the prisoner and the physician was not very seriously impressed with the seriousness of his condition and intimated that he would call some time this week. William Moses, however, who is at present residing with Mr. Simpson, takes a very serious view of Mr. Carter's condition and he informed the News man this morning that the prisoner's hands and feet were very clammy and cold and that if something was not done, the man was bound to die shortly.
