INSTALLATION AND GOOD TIME I. O. Foresters' Chief Was at Interesting Gathering of Court Ouagondy Last Night

On Wednesday evening a large audience assembled in the Temple Building, Main street to witness the installation of the officers of Court Ouagondy No. 152.

Dr. W. F. Roberts, Court Physician, presided over the proceedings, which were of an excellent programme of vocal and instrumental music with addresses.

Those taking part were: The Victoria street orchestra, Judge Cockburn, H. C. G. Grass, H. V. R. address; A. T. King, vocal duet; Miss Lillian Bromfield and Lizzie Leek, piano duet; Master Gerald King, vocal solo; Miss McCuskey, vocal solo.

Refreshments were served during the evening. Chief Justice Murray in a most able and interesting address, declared the large number present.

The club now has probably the best dressed stage to be seen in any hall in the city. William McCuskey worked every evening for over two weeks painting a special set of scenery, and Percy Warren painted and put up a fine drop curtain. Other members lent assistance in the work, with the result that the stage now presents a handsome appearance.

The members also cleaned the walls of the hall and will decorate them and varnish the wood-work. All this work is done with coat to the club, except for materials.

Walter C. Allison has presented to the club a dozen chairs for the platform. Charles L. Bustin a piece of furniture, H. P. Hayward a bust of Robert Burns, and Mrs. Thomas J. Pood two handsome pictures for the wall.

The club's minstrels are now organized, with a small orchestra to assist them. The membership of the club is growing every week, chiefly by the addition of young men.
