DIED AFTER RUN FOR STREET CAR

Tragic Death of Harold Crawford, of Fairville, at Paradise Row Corner.

Harold Crawford of Main street, Fairville, died last night as a result of heart failure occasioned by the strain of running for a Fairville car at the corner of Main street and Paradise row at a little after eleven o'clock last evening. He was only twenty-one years of age, but had been suffering from leakage of the heart for some time. Mr. Crawford was observed by several people to pull at his collar as if it were choking him after he had run for the car, and Harry Cartwright and Frederick Shears caught him to keep him from falling. They heard him say, "I guess I run too hard." He was carried into the New York Ice Cream Parlor, where he died before medical aid could be summoned. The body was viewed by Coroner William Warwick, who gave permission for its removal to Chamberlain's undertaking rooms. He said he would decide today whether or not an inquest would be necessary.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Price-Heffer.
Miss Florence Della Heffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heffer of Sussex, was married yesterday at her home to George Oswald Price of Moncton by Rev. George F. Dawson. Miss Heffer of St. John, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Price left after the ceremony for a trip to Montreal, Boston and New York, and on their return will reside in Moncton.

RECENT DEATHS

William Fitzgerald.
The death of William Fitzgerald occurred yesterday at the East St. John hospital after a lengthy illness. Mr. Fitzgerald was forty years of age and was a native of Birkenhead, Eng., having come to St. John in 1909. He was an employee of the Nashwaak Pulp and Paper Mills and was very highly regarded by all who knew him. He had been ill for some time, and for the last thirteen months had been a patient in the county hospital. He is survived by his wife, one son, Jack, aged eleven; two brothers, Edward Joseph, of Fairville, and John of Birkenhead, Eng.; and one sister, Mrs. Thomas Meahan, of 229 Union street, West St. John. The funeral will take place on Wednesday from his late residence, 21 Charles street, West St. John.

ment of Lottie Chin, at 17 Mott street. According to Mrs. Chin, the young woman was known to her only as Margie. She said they had worked as telephone operators in Boston. Up to a few weeks ago, she said, Margie had been living with a Chinese husband in Providence, but they quarrelled and she came to New York.

Since her arrival she has been living in Brooklyn. Yesterday she went to visit Mrs. Chin and decided to spend the night. Early this morning Mrs. Chin tried in vain to rouse her companion, and called a physician who found that the girl had been dead several hours.

The police believe the young woman was using narcotics and that death was due to an overdose of some drug.

The committee to consider the revision of the constitution and by-laws of the Women's Canadian Club met at the home of Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond last week. Miss Grace Leavitt presided. It was decided that many changes would be necessary. The members of the committee are Mrs. C. B. Allan, Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond, Miss Ethel Jarvis, Miss Katherine Bell, Miss Amelia Haley, Miss Anne Tingey, with Miss Grace Leavitt convener.
