ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

A TRIP TO FRANCE.

"Why, it's as pretty as America!" exclaimed Nancy. "I want the Twins to see the highest tower in the world."

So to Paris they went, and the titmouse flew right to the top of a tower built entirely of iron, and so high that it nearly touched the clouds.

"It's like being in an aeroplane," cried Nick. "You can see the whole world nearly from here."

"Paris is a big place, isn't it," exclaimed Nancy, looking down.

"About as big as London Town," said Johnny Jump Up. "One of the largest cities in the world."

"Is this where the king lives?" asked Nick.

"No, France hasn't a king any more. It has a president," said Johnny Jump Up.

"But it says in a book 'The King of France came down the hill, and never went up again.'"

"That was a long time ago," said Johnny Jump Up. "Now then, titmouse, take us to the country."

"Why, it's as pretty as America," exclaimed Nancy in surprise. "The rivers and fields and woods are just the same."

"Almost," said Johnny Jump Up. "Only the farm houses are not off by themselves as they are in America. They are in a bunch, and barns where they keep their cows and pigs are joined to the houses."

They flew over more big cities and then to a place in the south of France where was a lovely blue sea, and where oranges were growing.

at the breast without fatigue or strain. The recent great increase in the deaths of infants was mainly due to impure milk, and the remedy is in the form of Lactagol, the purest milk feeding, and the only safe food for baby, so mother should always try to breast-feed baby with the help of Lactagol before experimenting with artificial foods.

Lactagol

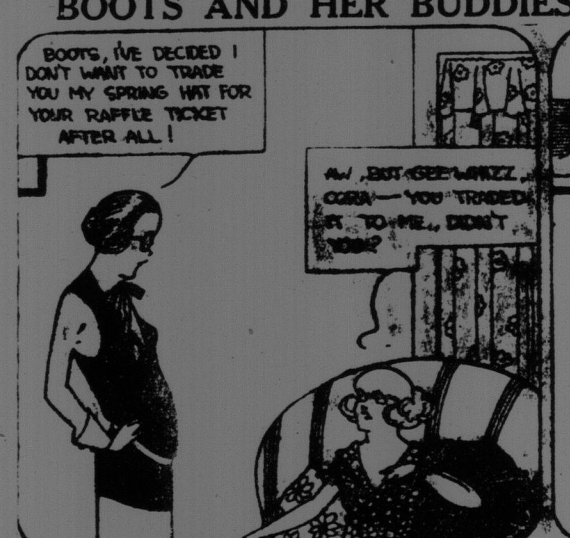

may be taken at any time, and taken some months prior to the birth, it strengthens mother, enables her better to withstand the strain of confinement, and also improves the milk and tone of mother.

HEBREW SCHOLARS GIVE PROGRAMME

Many Listen With Pleasure to Closing Exercises at School.

Large audiences were greatly pleased with the fine presentation of the history of the Jewish people given by the pupils of the St. John Hebrew School in the Carleton street Synagogue vestry yesterday afternoon and evening. The program was given as the closing work of the year in the school and also to observe the Shabbath holiday. Following the presentation of the program a Jewish comedy was enjoyed entitled "Olom Habah," in which the dialogue was given in Hebrew.

Those taking part in the comedy were as follows:

Mr. Tcherik (well fixed), M. Budovich; Mrs. Tcherik (his wife), P. Katsky; Mr. Krotchik (teacher), B. Guss; a Jew, Ben Friedman; first witness, Wm. Guss; second witness, Wm. Guss.

Following the opening prologue by N. Ellman, the history of the Shabbath holiday was related by Leah Bab.

The characters and those representing them in the eight scenes of the program were as follows:

gave a special selection before the pastor's address. Mr. Robbins made an earnest plea to the parents to pay more attention to the religious training of their children and expressed the hope that at an early date there would be more religious training given in the day schools.

Following the address, the exercise "The Little Light Bearers and the Nations in Darkness" was given by 10 girls. Mr. Parsons expressed appreciation to the scholars for the splendid way in which they had carried out their part of the programme.

The programme committee consisted of Mrs. W. A. Robbins, Mrs. George Gibbon, Evelyn Black, R. J. Rupert and R. H. Parsons.

Centenary. The services in Centenary church were attended by many yesterday especially in the evening. Rev. Robert G. Fulton preached on "Rest and Recreation." Miss Hiska Kolke sang very sweetly. Rev. Mason Linton, B. A., assisted in the service and also made the congregation farewell. He is to become pastor of the Lindsay, Carleton county, church. He thanked the people for the gift sent to him for his ordination on the Sunday previous at Sackville. William Lanyon, in the morning, sang a bass solo with fine intonation.

Wires 500 millionths of an inch thick are used in very small light bulbs.

Children's Day Observed. "Children's Day" was observed by a special service in the Ludlow street Baptist church last night when R. H. Parsons, Sunday school superintendent, presided and the Sunday school pupils had an important part in the programme. Miss M. E. Mullin played the organ prelude and following the scripture reading and prayer by Rev. W. A. Robbins, pastor, two boys of the primary department made responses. The exercise "Queen Daisy" was given by five girls and the reading "If" by Edwin Rupert. The choir
