REMARKS.

According to Schedule, a zealous Missionary would collect a congregation in almost any the school houses.
Church also at Elgin, 9 miles from Huntingdon.
Suffering from the removal of families to other parts of the country, chiefly to the United States.
Return received from Managers.
Pews have all been sold, subject to regulations.
People desirous to build a Manse, but in need of external aid. Original cost of Church $200. Supposed to be a mistake in estimating its present value at $200.
Large Church much wanted. The present one being far too small. Minister ordained November, 1859.
Church not given, it being the property of the Right Honorable Edward Ellice, Seigneur. Charge vacant since the death of the Rev. Prosper L. Leger, 26th November, 1859.
