

PRICES AT THE FAIR.

Restaurant Keepers on the Grounds. Make no Modest Charges. Chicago, May 3.—Restaurant keepers at Jackson Park are still in the money-making business, with them with extra-ordinary charges. How far the truth of this charge is shown by the facts a few instances will serve to illustrate.

Beef with brown gravy. Stewed potatoes. On the bill of fare from which this order was made there was an irregular column of figures opposite the most list of the bill of fare not upon the card at all and the coffee was listed at 15 cents.

objection being made to the size of the check the waiter, in broken English, attempted to explain. Opposite the beef on the bill of fare was printed 75 cents but on the edge of the card was a check mark which the waiter declared meant that the price had been raised.

French cookery has a high reputation, but it is doubtful if this distinguished exponent of the art, a silver medals unless they are awarded him for excelling as a butcher. White Horse Inn, that the overcharge and extortion were due to the dishonesty of waiters.

any way with the White Horse Inn Company. Some time ago I received through the mail a card containing a receipt for a dinner at the White Horse Inn. The receipt was for a dinner for two persons, and the amount was $1.50.

It is promised, both by the concessionaires and the officers of the exposition, that the quality of the meals served will show great improvement in the quality of the meals served and in the reasonableness of the prices charged.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

Death of a British Officer—Stolen Exhibits—Blarney Castle Decorated. Chicago, May 10.—A shadow has been cast over the British military colony at Potomac, by the sudden death of Captain Edward Wm. D. Croker, of the 1st Battalion of the Buffs.

who was prevented by ill-health from reviewing the parade, and came here in his flagship, the Infanta, is dead. The green flag of Ireland and the stars and stripes floated from the battlements of Blarney castle this afternoon, on the occasion of the opening of the Irish village in the midway pleasure ground.

LADY ABERDEEN.

An Eloquent Address at the Opening of the World's Fair.

Lady Aberdeen's address at the dedication of the Woman's Building of the World's Fair was an eloquent one. She said that it was a great honor to be allowed to take part in the opening ceremony of the building which was the work of women.

It is a great honor to be allowed to take part in the opening ceremony of the building which was the work of women. The object of these women was to show to the world that women are capable of doing as much as men.

Fishes That Do Not Move.

A great many of our well-known fishes do not move from Christmas to Easter, and often for a much longer period. I paid a visit to the chief Canadian fish hatchery, which is under the superintendence of Mr. Wainwright, at Newcastle, Ont., early in December.

AFFAIRS IN EUROPE.

The Political Situation—Death of an Eminent Prelate.

Vienna, May 10.—Cardinal Vaszary, primate of Hungary, appeared in the Hungarian house of magnates, at the Catholic cathedral, where he presided over a debate and made a violent attack upon the policy of the government towards the Catholics.

Paris, May 10.—In commenting on the report that the Pope is about to propose a general disarmament, Le Debat says that France can have no objection to the proposal but one: "Non possumus."

Rome, May 10.—Premier Giolitti stayed in the chamber of deputies to-day, and the government was opposed by two army corps as suggested. It was imperative, he said, that existing relations be maintained.

St. Louis, May 10.—At the colonial office it is stated that the powers which are parties to the Samoan treaty have accepted the resignation of Chief Justice Cederstranz as Barony Viscount, president of the municipal council.

Rome, May 10.—Since the dissolution of the German Reichstag negotiations between von Bulow, Prussian minister to the Vatican, and Cardinal Rampolla, papal secretary of state, continue. The object of these negotiations is the part of von Bulow is to arrive at arrangements by which pressure from the Vatican will be exerted upon the German Catholic bishops, the end of obtaining their support for the government in the coming general elections for the Reichstag.

Bremen, May 10.—The authorities at this port have ordered a quarantine against all vessels arriving from French ports, as a result of the spread of cholera in France.

Buda Pesth, May 10.—The Hungarian prime minister announces that the cabinet will not resign, in spite of the action of the house of deputies in voting "no confidence" on the church question by a majority of 25.

Rome, May 10.—Cardinal Ziglaris died to-day. He was regarded as a candidate for the papacy. He was bishop of Frascan and prefect of the Congregation of Studies. He had been cardinal since 1833 and raised to the cardinalate in 1870.

Paris, May 10.—The chamber of deputies issued a bill raising the rank of an ambassador in Germany. In the course of the debate on the bill some objections were raised on the subject of the change. Premier Dupuy, in answering to the objections, said that the change was necessary and advantageous.

Madrid, May 10.—A dispatch from Cuba announces that the state of siege in east Cuba in view of the present peaceful aspect in that part of the island.

Paris, May 10.—The Journal des Debats, in commenting on Emperor Wilhelm's speech to the officers of the grand army, says that the speech contains nothing that need alarm the neighbors of Germany.

AMERICAN NEWS NOTES.

Daily Chronicle of Events in That Great Republic. San Francisco, May 10.—J. W. Nagle has been pardoned by Gov. Markham.

Newport, May 10.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals has just handed down a decision of great moment to insurance companies.

Boston, May 11.—Walter Emerson, the cornet player, was to-day granted a divorce from his wife, Midora, by Justice Richardson.

St. Paul, Minn., May 11.—One of the most notable conventions of 1893 will be that which will assemble in Chicago June 5th to deal with the great question of combinations to raise the price of fuel.

London, May 8.—Michael Davitt, an Irish revolutionary leader, has been granted a writ of habeas corpus by the High Court of Justice.

Uruguay, May 11.—A force of 100 men have been sent to guard the frontier and prevent a possible an expected invasion of Brazil.

London, May 8.—Michael Davitt, an Irish revolutionary leader, has been granted a writ of habeas corpus by the High Court of Justice.

check them, but the Uruguayans escaped without being injured. Gen. Hippolyte will probably be appointed general-in-chief of the Argentine army.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

St. Louis, May 11.—A neatly dressed young man surprised the hundreds of people at the Union depot last night by a very sudden accident.

BLAKE'S LATEST SPEECH.

Reply to T. W. Russell and Others—Canada as an Illustration.

Following are extracts from the report of Hon. Edward Blake's speech in the House of Commons on the second reading of the home rule bill.

Reverting to the point, Mr. Blake marked that the hon. and gallant admiral did not state the grounds on which he insisted that the powers of the House of Commons should be weakened by the passage of this bill.

That was to be taken as a matter of faith, from the hon. and gallant admiral. This country would want more ships, more guns, and more admirals, he supposed. (Admiral Field; Yes, there were too many admirals.)

Yes, there were too many admirals. (Nationalist cheers.) How making Ireland, the hon. and gallant admiral, produce a state of things in which one more ship would be required.

It was impossible to understand what the hon. and gallant admiral said that if Ireland were removed 2,000 miles away he could not comprehend an independent Ireland with tranquility, the house would be able to appreciate the sincerity of the first part of his speech.

It was impossible to understand what the hon. and gallant admiral said that if Ireland were removed 2,000 miles away he could not comprehend an independent Ireland with tranquility, the house would be able to appreciate the sincerity of the first part of his speech.

It was impossible to understand what the hon. and gallant admiral said that if Ireland were removed 2,000 miles away he could not comprehend an independent Ireland with tranquility, the house would be able to appreciate the sincerity of the first part of his speech.

It was impossible to understand what the hon. and gallant admiral said that if Ireland were removed 2,000 miles away he could not comprehend an independent Ireland with tranquility, the house would be able to appreciate the sincerity of the first part of his speech.

It was impossible to understand what the hon. and gallant admiral said that if Ireland were removed 2,000 miles away he could not comprehend an independent Ireland with tranquility, the house would be able to appreciate the sincerity of the first part of his speech.

It was impossible to understand what the hon. and gallant admiral said that if Ireland were removed 2,000 miles away he could not comprehend an independent Ireland with tranquility, the house would be able to appreciate the sincerity of the first part of his speech.

It was impossible to understand what the hon. and gallant admiral said that if Ireland were removed 2,000 miles away he could not comprehend an independent Ireland with tranquility, the house would be able to appreciate the sincerity of the first part of his speech.

It was impossible to understand what the hon. and gallant admiral said that if Ireland were removed 2,000 miles away he could not comprehend an independent Ireland with tranquility, the house would be able to appreciate the sincerity of the first part of his speech.

It was impossible to understand what the hon. and gallant admiral said that if Ireland were removed 2,000 miles away he could not comprehend an independent Ireland with tranquility, the house would be able to appreciate the sincerity of the first part of his speech.

It depended, also, upon the question whether animals, tabor, and alienation produced by past wrongs and injustice were repairable in the mind of man, and whether they were to be repaired by the course of justice, or by the force of arms, or by the abandonment of wrong and injustice and by the grant of the reasonable rights of citizenship.

British Tars to the Rescue.

Members of the crew of the Blake, says a New York dispatch, showed their bravery in the rescue of five people from drowning. The Blake seemed to be the only vessel on the scene.

Members of the crew of the Blake, says a New York dispatch, showed their bravery in the rescue of five people from drowning. The Blake seemed to be the only vessel on the scene.

Members of the crew of the Blake, says a New York dispatch, showed their bravery in the rescue of five people from drowning. The Blake seemed to be the only vessel on the scene.

Members of the crew of the Blake, says a New York dispatch, showed their bravery in the rescue of five people from drowning. The Blake seemed to be the only vessel on the scene.

Members of the crew of the Blake, says a New York dispatch, showed their bravery in the rescue of five people from drowning. The Blake seemed to be the only vessel on the scene.

Members of the crew of the Blake, says a New York dispatch, showed their bravery in the rescue of five people from drowning. The Blake seemed to be the only vessel on the scene.

Members of the crew of the Blake, says a New York dispatch, showed their bravery in the rescue of five people from drowning. The Blake seemed to be the only vessel on the scene.

Members of the crew of the Blake, says a New York dispatch, showed their bravery in the rescue of five people from drowning. The Blake seemed to be the only vessel on the scene.

It depended, also, upon the question whether animals, tabor, and alienation produced by past wrongs and injustice were repairable in the mind of man, and whether they were to be repaired by the course of justice, or by the force of arms, or by the abandonment of wrong and injustice and by the grant of the reasonable rights of citizenship.

PLEASE ADVERTISE PAPA!

The waste basket stood in the corner, where long it had stood in the past, its sides empty of paper.

The waste basket stood in the corner, where long it had stood in the past, its sides empty of paper.

The waste basket stood in the corner, where long it had stood in the past, its sides empty of paper.

The waste basket stood in the corner, where long it had stood in the past, its sides empty of paper.

The waste basket stood in the corner, where long it had stood in the past, its sides empty of paper.

The waste basket stood in the corner, where long it had stood in the past, its sides empty of paper.

The waste basket stood in the corner, where long it had stood in the past, its sides empty of paper.

The waste basket stood in the corner, where long it had stood in the past, its sides empty of paper.