

Supplement to The Victoria

$1.50

VOL.

THE

Particu
tw

TWO

After Se
to

London, O
received at fighting at message, da
as follo s:

"I employe
the obligator
I sent a me Fusiliers and a position on flank.

"The fore
evening, and
battery mak
the guns, wh cover. The returned, bu

"I detaile
artillery and
aided by cav
attack the p
emy yesterd

"We found
but our fore
Attacked
by what I h troops. They ed in great r

"Our troop
we pushed
miles, but d
his laager.

"Our losses
and 100, but have been m
guns appeari

"After bei
I withdrew d
ed unmoleste

"The enem
their guns r
guns. I use
arily silenced
minate the
which he has

Bom
at a range of The advanc
the object of the position

mounted a m
ing the spot,
they had eve
British conti
movement de

ance in force
on a range of about 16

The British
following or regiments of the Royal F
tallions of inf
batteries of

two regiment
fantry battal
Royal Irish Regiment and
tery.

This force
our left flank
Gen. Whit

was that as the force com
was dispos
about three throw itself
left flank wa

iers and the
The plan w
in execution,
Boer position
tive point wa

Our artiller
ome of the e
delivered on
principal one,
pelled to cha
been silenced
fantry advanc

The enemy
A He
and as they
cally, Gen.

infantry to be
movement w
steadiness an
of our guns,
tice.

The engage and resulte
estimated at
loss must ha
tal.

The attack
our right, a
driven out
Lombard R
however, to
ther, as bey
broken ridge
natural cover
took the full

Failed to
and as our order, they
fire the effe
parent
Gen. White